Scripture Reflection:

Read the Gospel: John 3:14-21

Gospel Summary

This Gospel passage contains one of the most beloved and well-known verses of Scripture: “For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life” (John 3:16). Indeed, God’s great love for us is clearly presented in this reading. It also calls us to keep coming into the light, to turn from our wicked ways, and to live the truth.

Reflection for Parents

God sent his Son into the world with a purpose, and that purpose was to save and to redeem those who believed in him. Take time to think about the world into which you are sending your children. What are you doing to prepare them to fulfill their purpose, their call, as sons and daughters of God? How are you showing them what it means to come to the light and to live the truth?

Bringing the Gospel into Your Family

Think of one or more persons your family knows who might be experiencing a time of darkness, at time when it is difficult for them to remember that God loves them. Decide on ways your family can reach out to those persons—perhaps by sending cards, making phone calls, fixing meals, or spending time with them. Make an action plan to follow through on your decisions.

LOVE, MARRIAGE & FAMILY

Married Love and the Gift of Life - Part 4

A teaching statement by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) approved for publication by the full body of bishops at its November 2006 General Meeting.

Is there really a difference between using contraception and practicing natural family planning?

On the surface, there may seem to be little difference. But the end result is not the only thing that matters, and the way we get to that result may make an enormous moral difference. Some ways respect God’s gifts to us while others do not. Couples who have practiced natural family planning after using contraception have experienced a profound difference in the meaning of their sexual intimacy.

When couples use contraception, either physical or chemical, they suppress their fertility, asserting that they alone have ultimate control over this power to create a new human life. With NFP, spouses respect God’s design for life and love. They may choose to refrain from sexual union during the woman’s fertile time, doing nothing to destroy the love-giving or life-giving meaning that is present. This is the difference between choosing to falsify the full marital language of the body and choosing at certain times not to speak that language.

The Church’s support for NFP is not based on its being “natural” as opposed to artificial. Rather, NFP respects the God-given power to love a new human life into being even when we are not actively seeking to exercise that power. However, because NFP does not change the human body in any way, or upset its balance with potentially harmful drugs or devices, people of other faiths or of no religious affiliation have also come to accept and use it from a desire to work in harmony with their bodies. They have also found that it leads couples to show greater attentiveness to and respect for each other.

What has been the impact of contraception on society? On married couples?

Many would likely be surprised at how long all Christian churches agreed on this teaching against contraception. It was only in 1930 that some Protestant denominations began to reject this long-held position. Those opposed to this trend predicted an increase in premarital sex, adultery, acceptance of divorce, and abortion. Later, in 1968, Pope Paul VI warned that the use of contraception would allow one spouse to treat the other more like an object than a person, and that in time governments would be tempted to impose laws limiting family size. Pope John Paul II called attention to the close association between contraception and abortion, noting that “the negative values inherent in the ‘contraceptive mentality’... are such that they in fact strengthen this temptation [to abortion] when an unwanted life is conceived” (Evangelium Vitae, no. 13).

These predictions have come true. Today we see a pandemic of sexually transmitted diseases, an enormous rise in cohabitation, one in three children born outside of marriage, and abortion used by many when contraception fails. A failure to respect married love’s power to help create new life has eroded respect for life and for the sanctity of marriage.

FAITH AND PRAYER

Pray with the Vocations Committee!

Each month the St. Anthony Mary Claret Vocations Committee requests that you join them in praying for a few local seminarians and for an increase in vocations to religious life. They also commend to your intercession a group committed to the consecrated life:

School Sisters of Notre Dame

Below are the seminarians who will be the recipients of your prayers this month:

Christian Ramirez

Christian Rocha

Lord Jesus, Good Shepherd, may young people in our parish hear your call and follow your voice as they discern their vocations. Lead your people to heaven through the ministry of holy priests and consecrated men and women.

Jesus, we trust in you! Amen.

SUNDAY FUNNIES

An Irishman, by the name of O'Malley proposed to his girl on St. Patrick's Day. He gave her a ring with a synthetic diamond. The excited young lass showed it to her father, a jeweler. He took one look at it and saw it wasn't real.

The young lass on learning it wasn't real returned to her future husband. She protested vehemently about his cheapness.

"It was in honor of St. Patrick's Day," he smiled. "I gave you a sham rock."

FAITH AND PRAYER

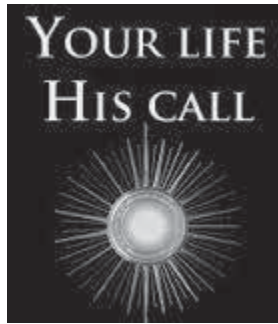

What Vocations Mean to Me

by Alvin Ench,

Member, St. Anthony Mary Claret Vocations Committee

The formation of seminarians into priests is something which is near and dear to my heart. The reason: for the last year and a half some of the familiar faces you have seen have been or are currently my philosophy classmates at Mexican American Catholic College (MACC) which is a part of Assumption Seminary. I am probably the oldest student at 70 years of age, but I enjoy a special relationship with these fine young men.

Their day begins before dawn with prayer (Liturgy of the Hours), reconciliation and holy Mass. Then, with light of dawn, on to breakfast. This is a daily ritual which they follow from their first day of seminary and will follow all the rest of their days. Their backgrounds are greatly varied with some beginning their post high school life to others who possess academic learning from institutions such as the University of Notre Dame and the U.S. Military Academy at West Point. All have heard God's calling to follow him much as Jesus called to the fisherman along the Sea of Galilee to follow him and become fishers of men.

These young men possess a quality which is not seen much these days in our contemporary society. They are a fun bunch to be with, but in a very nice sort of way. They are all our sons and brothers who strive to the highest calling there can ever be in this world—a calling I share with them personally and interiorly.

We all have an opportunity to be supportive of them through our prayers (informally we have a saying..."you pray for me, I pray for you") and materially, through the Archdiocesan Capital Campaign which allocates a percentage of its funding to support the seminarians by providing improved facilities in which to learn in an enhanced environment. These brothers and sons are all deserving of your support!!

God, like a watchful shepherd, You care for us. You make the earth yield healing herbs and medicines and give us the knowledge to learn their power. Your creative love continues through the healing hands of doctor, pharmacist and nurse, and the healing counsel of priest, minister and friend. Bless us, and all who suffer, especially these members of our parish family. Our afflictions become a cross that burdens us with fear and uncertainty. Cast out our fear and revive our faith. Give us strength that we may be filled with hope. Let the Holy Spirit come to our aid that we might live each day in the joy for which You fashioned us. We pray for healing in body, soul and spirit that we may be Your servants in this world and enjoy the fullness of Your presence in the life to come. We make this prayer humbly, knowing we cannot restrict or direct Your saving grace. We give joyful thanks for Your compassion wherever we may find it. We ask all this in the name of the Lord Jesus who intercedes before You on our behalf. Amen.
