Scripture Reflection:

Read the Gospel: John 10:11-18

Gospel Summary

Jesus tells us in today's Gospel that he is the Good Shepherd. He makes a distinction between good shepherds and hired hands. Good shepherds truly care for, guard and protect their sheep. Hired hands are more likely to run at the first sign of trouble. As a good shepherd, Jesus knows his sheep and his sheep know him. Jesus is so devoted to his sheep that he will lay down his life for them.

Reflection for Parents

Think of all the people who share in the task of teaching, guiding, and protecting your child. Who among those people is truly a good shepherd—a person who invests himself or herself in your child's life? Who are the "hired hands"—those who are less personally invested, but are still a part of your child's circle of formation and care? Think about your own role as a parent. How are you being a good shepherd to your child and to your family? Are there any "wolves" in your life, drawing your attention away from the flock God has placed in your care?

Bringing the Gospel into Your Family

Today is a day to give thanks to the shepherds! Invite family members to talk about the good shepherds in their lives and in your family's life. Make a list of the shepherds who are mentioned by name. Use arts and crafts supplies and notecards to write thank-you notes or to create "Good Shepherd" certificates. Mail or deliver the notes or certificates in the coming week.

CONFIRMATION

Confirmation Mass: Thursday, Apr. 26, 7 p.m.

Offer this prayer for the confirmandi:

Heavenly Father,
 in the Old Testament, your prophets and priests
 would anoint the faithful with oil.
 Through this holy anointing
 you made known to them their mission on earth.
 On Pentecost, at the birth of the Church,
 you sent your Holy Spirit on the disciples.
 On that day, the promise you gave of your Spirit
 was fulfilled to the whole world.
 As these newly confirmed go out into the world preserve the gifts of the Spirit in their hearts.
 May the completion of their initiation through Confirmation help them fulfill their baptismal promises
 as members of the Body of Christ.
 Amen.

RESPECT LIFE

Words of Life

“By radiating charity and mercy to all our neighbors, we provide those much needed islands of mercy. Together, we stand against the wind of the throwaway culture, and brave its sea of indifference, sustained by Jesus who is, as Pope Francis has called Him, ‘the living face of the Father’s mercy.’”

— “Life Issues Forum: After Marching, Acting as Islands of Mercy”
Caitlin Thomas, USCCB Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities

Palabras De Vida

“Al irradiar caridad y misericordia a nuestro prójimo, ofrecemos estas necesarias islas de misericordia. Juntos, luchamos contra el viento de la cultura de lo desechable y enfrentamos el mar de la indiferencia, alimentados por Jesús, que es “es el rostro de la misericordia del Padre”, como lo llamó el Papa Francisco.

— “Foro Asuntos de Vida: Ser islas de misericordia después de la marcha”
Caitlin Thomas, Secretariado de Actividades Pro Vida de la USCCB

Intercessions for Life

May Jesus, the Good Shepherd, inspire all hearts to care for the most vulnerable members of society. We pray to the Lord...

Intercesiones por la Vida

Que Jesús, el Buen Pastor, inspire todos los corazones a cuidar a los miembros más vulnerables de la Sociedad. Roguemos al Señor...

LOVE, MARRIAGE & FAMILY

God’s Plan for Love and Sexuality - Conclusion

Gifted with the Capacity to Give Life

To be a man or a woman includes the gift of fertility. “If the parents are in some sense the foundations of the home, the children are like the ‘living stones’ of the family (c.f. 1 Pt 2:5)” (Amoris Laetitia, no. 14). Fertility enables many people to share in God’s bringing of a new life into the world through procreation. Sadly, it must be remembered that we live in an imperfect world. The cross of infertility is part of many other people’s lives.

Men and women bring to the act of procreation (sexual intercourse) their entire persons (body and soul) and only those reproductive cells that are unique to them. The great good of procreation is part of God’s design for marriage:

God blessed them and God said to them:

“Be fertile and multiply; fill the earth and subdue it.” (Gn 1:28)

In addition to the good of the spouses, God created marriage to be “oriented” or “ordained toward the begetting and education of children” (Gaudium et spes, no. 50). The fullness of human sexuality—its power to unite the man and women in the one flesh union (unitive) and its ability to generate new life (procreative)—is therefore to be lived within the context of marriage. This is true despite the fact that not all couples will be able to bear children. Marriage, the Church understands, “is not... the effect of chance or the product of evolution of unconscious natural forces, it is the wise institution of the Creator to realize in mankind His design of love” (Humanae vitae, no. 8).

When a man and a woman come together in the conjugal embrace (sexual intercourse) and bring forth new life, it is an awe-inspiring act of God’s generosity. It is a gift. This is why the Church has often spoken of procreation being a “primary good” of marriage. It is the invitation by the Lord of all Creation to share in the sacred task of procreating new people with an eternal destiny.

Although Church teaching holds up procreation as part of the nature of human sexuality and marriage, married couples may find that they are infertile. “Some couples are unable to have children. We know that this can be a cause of real suffering for them” (Amoris Laetitia, no. 178). The Church does not have an answer as to the “why” of infertility, despite the fact that medicine may be able to provide a diagnosis. With sincere compassion to those struggling with infertility, the Church can offer consolation and guidance to approach infertility in a way that reverences the person and respects God’s plan for married love. In addition, the Church joins with St. John Paul II in saying:

*You are no less loved by God;
your love for each other is complete and fruitful
when it is open to others, to the needs of the apostolate,
to the needs of the poor, to the needs of orphans,
to the needs of the world.*
(John Paul II, Homily, 1982)

FAITH AND PRAYER

Introducing

The Traveling Priest

a new initiative of the St. Anthony Mary Claret Vocations Committee

St. John Vianney is the patron saint of priests. To assist families in praying for vocations in our parish, a statue of this beloved saint will be available to host in their homes for a one-week period.

Sign up in the narthex after all Masses this weekend.

HOW IT WORKS:

- Each week The Traveling Priest will stay with a new family.
- Once you receive it into your home, place it in a prominent place.
 - Pray daily using the prayers in this brochure.
- Return The Traveling Priest to the St. Anthony Mary Claret Vocations Committee.
- Continue to pray for vocations by adding this petition to your family prayers.

Saint John Vianney

Feast Day: August 4; Born: 1768; Died: 1859

A man with vision overcomes obstacles and performs deeds that seem impossible. John Vianney was a man with vision. He wanted to become a priest, but had to overcome his meager formal schooling, which inadequately prepared him for seminary studies.

His failure to comprehend Latin lectures forced him to discontinue. Still, his vision of being a priest urged him to seek private tutoring. After a lengthy battle with the books, John was ordained.

Situations calling for “impossible” deeds followed him everywhere. As pastor of the parish at Ars, John encountered people who were indifferent and quite comfortable with their style of living. His vision led him through severe fasts and short nights of sleep.

His work as a confessor is John Vianney’s most remarkable accomplishment. In the winter months he was to spend 11 to 12 hours daily reconciling people with God. In the summer months this time was increased to 16 hours. Unless a man was dedicated to his vision of a priestly vocation, he could not have endured this giving of self day after day.

The miracles recorded by his biographers are of three classes:

- first, the obtaining of money for his charities and food for his orphans;
- secondly, supernatural knowledge of the past and future;
- thirdly, healing the sick, especially children.

The greatest miracle of all was his life. He practiced mortification from his early youth, and for forty years his food and sleep were insufficient, humanly speaking, to sustain life. As his fame spread, more hours were consumed in serving God’s people. Even the few hours he would allow himself for sleep were disturbed frequently by the devil. And yet he labored incessantly, with unfailing humility, gentleness, patience, and cheerfulness, until he was more than seventy-three years old. Who, but a man with vision, could keep going with ever-increasing strength?

In 1929, Pope Pius XI named him the patron of parish priests worldwide.

Pray for the Sick of Our Parish Family

God, like a watchful shepherd, You care for us. You make the earth yield healing herbs and medicines and give us the knowledge to learn their power. Your creative love continues through the healing hands of doctor, pharmacist and nurse, and the healing counsel of priest, minister and friend. Bless us, and all who suffer, especially these members of our parish family. Our afflictions become a cross that burdens us with fear and uncertainty. Cast out our fear and revive our faith. Give us strength that we may be filled with hope. Let the Holy Spirit come to our aid that we might live each day in the joy for which You fashioned us. We pray for healing in body, soul and spirit that we may be Your servants in this world and enjoy the fullness of Your presence in the life to come. We make this prayer humbly, knowing we cannot restrict or direct Your saving grace. We give joyful thanks for Your compassion wherever we may find it. We ask all this in the name of the Lord Jesus who intercedes before You on our behalf. Amen.
