The Most Holy Trinity

Scripture Reflection:

Read the Gospel: Matthew 28:16-20

Gospel Summary

Today's Gospel passage is the conclusion of Matthew's Gospel. In the Bible, this event is titled The Commissioning of the Disciples. They are indeed commissioned to make disciples of all nations, to baptize, and to teach to others what Christ has taught them. Jesus promised that he would always be with them as they carried out the mission of the Church.

Reflection for Families

As parents, we are commissioned by the Church to be the first and most significant teachers of the faith for our children. We present our children to the Church for Baptism, we teach them the Commandments, and we share with them the Good News of Jesus Christ. We show them how to live as Christ's disciples in the world today. In this way the Church on earth grows and is strengthened. Take time this week to think about how you are fulfilling your commission to be the first and foremost teacher of the faith for your child. What more can you do to fulfill your role?

Bringing the Gospel into Your Family

This solemnity celebrates the Holy Trinity—God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit. Work together to create a Holy Trinity mobile. Invite family members to use small squares or circles of construction paper to draw symbols for the Persons of the Holy Trinity. For example, you might draw favorite parts of creation to symbolize God the Father, a cross to represent God the Son, and a dove or a flame to symbolize God the Holy Spirit. Write the title "The Holy Trinity" in one square or circle. Use yarn and dowels or coat hangers to create your mobile. Hang the mobile in a place where all family members will see it and will be reminded to celebrate the work of the Holy Trinity.

IN OUR PARISH

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We, the people of St. Anthony Mary Claret Parish, have as our mission to open our hearts and doors to those from all walks of life so that they, too, may share in the everlasting presence of God. Together, we strive to grow closer to Jesus Christ through the Holy Eucharist. We work to foster the development of the parish, not only to strengthen our own spiritual awareness, but to impact the community as a whole.

WELCOME

As pastor of St. Anthony Mary Claret Catholic Church, I want to express the welcome from all of us to you for choosing to become a member of our parish family. We all hope you will always feel at home here and that our worship and other parochial services will fulfill your spiritual needs.

Please complete either an on-line registration form at saclaret.com or you can find a printed one near the entrance of our church in the Narthex. You may return it to the parish office or drop it in the collection basket at your convenience.

I hope we are making you feel welcome at St. Anthony Mary Claret!

Sincerely in Christ,
Rev. Jan Klak
Reverend Jan P. Klak

An Invitation to Join the Church:
RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults)
& RCIC (Rite of Christian Initiation of Children)

Why join the Catholic Church?

If you are asking the question, perhaps God is leading you to an answer. We believe you will find the fullness of Christianity in the teaching of the Catholic Church. Through RCIA/RCIC interested adults and children come to know the presence of God and learn how a relationship with Him can change their lives. It is an opportunity to see what the Catholic Church believes and how we live our faith. In the RCIA process, we will study the scriptures, discuss Catholic teaching, and most importantly, get a true, good and honest idea about what the Catholic Church is really all about. We are always interested in new inquiries. If you or someone you know would like to become a Catholic, or if you were baptized Catholic but have never celebrated Eucharist or Confirmation, contact Jennifer Rupert at rcia@saclaret.com or 210-688-9033 x214.

The Missing Graduates

Graduation season is upon us—a time of recognizing accomplishments, celebrating milestones, and looking forward to promising futures. In the midst of all this, it is easy to forget one very important truth: over a million children per grade level throughout the nation would have been with us had they not been killed by abortion. Over ONE MILLION members of each graduating class this year have been legally destroyed.

Take a moment to prayerfully reflect and remember these “missing” graduates who have been lost to abortion. We do not condemn those who felt they had to do this; rather, we weep with them now and we pray for the day when the most frail and vulnerable lives will enjoy the same protections the rest of us do.

RESPECT LIFE

Life Issues Forum— May 4, 2018: “Conspiracy Against Life”

by Chelsy Gomez, Program Associate for the Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops

In recent weeks, the eyes of the world were drawn to Liverpool, England as the life of 23-month-old Alfie Evans hung in the balance.

Despite drawing support from across the world, including from Pope Francis and the Italian and Polish governments, Alfie’s ventilator was removed against his parents’ wishes on April 23. Alfie suffered from an undiagnosed neurological condition and was not expected to survive long after the removal of the ventilator. However, Alfie surprised doctors as he breathed on his own for minutes, then hours, and then days, until he ultimately passed away on April 28.

Pope St. John Paul II warned that, “A person who, because of illness, handicap or, more simply, just by existing, compromises the well-being or life-style of those who are more favored tends to be looked upon as an enemy to be resisted or eliminated. In this way a kind of ‘conspiracy against life’ is unleashed” (Evangelium vitae, 12).

This “conspiracy against life” has a long history that runs deep and, over the centuries, has risen to the surface in many different forms. It is unleashed when a society equates human dignity with human ability, when we no longer focus on the burdens experienced by a person, but rather view the person as a burden.

The forced removal of Alfie’s ventilator happened to take place on the same day that the royal family and the British people rightly welcomed and celebrated the birth of a new little prince.

The juxtaposition of these two events is striking. Mere hours separated the happy announcement of a safe delivery of the healthy royal baby from the tragic news of the government-forced removal of life-sustaining care from little Alfie Evans.

The painful irony is that in the days that followed, as the world eagerly awaited the naming of this new royal child, it lost sight of the fact that every child deserves to be celebrated, cherished, and welcomed—regardless of their class, status, or medical condition.

The story of Alfie Evans is the most recent example of a growing hostility toward those whose lives are, for one reason or another, deemed to be “lesser,” “futile,” or “not worth living.”

Consider the staggering abortion rates of preborn children diagnosed with Down syndrome (nearly 100 percent in Iceland) or patients who, diagnosed with serious illnesses, are offered insurance coverage for assisted suicide, but not for treatment. All too often, efforts to end a life are cloaked in arguments of false compassion. These lives are construed as burdensome to those around them and not recognized as the unrepeatable gift that they are to the world. The feigned desire to end a person’s suffering ends a person’s life instead.

Human life—created in the image and likeness of God—is always a good, sacred in all stages and circumstances, and deserving of respect and protection from all that would threaten it.

It has often been said that we can measure a society by how it treats its weakest and most vulnerable members. We must never cease to witness to the dignity of human life, especially the most vulnerable among us. May Alfie’s memory support us in our efforts to end this “conspiracy against life.”

Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion

Thursday, June 7 at 7 p.m. in the church

The Traveling Priest Program

(a new initiative of the St. Anthony Mary Claret Vocations Committee) is a resounding success—thanks to YOU!

St. John Vianney is the patron saint of priests. To assist families in praying for vocations in our parish, a statue of this beloved saint will be available to host in their homes for a one-week period.

HOW IT WORKS:

- Each week The Traveling Priest statue will stay with a new family.
• Once you receive it into your home, place it in a prominent place.
• Pray daily using the prayers in the accompanying brochure.
• Continue to pray for vocations by adding that petition to your family's prayers.
• Returning/receiving of The Traveling Priest statue occurs weekly at Sunday 12 p.m. Mass.

Currently there are about 30 host families signed up.

To be placed on the waiting list, call the parish office at 210-688-9033.

FAITH AND PRAYER

Pray with the Vocations Committee!

Each month the St. Anthony Mary Claret Vocations Committee requests that you join them in praying for a few local seminarians and for an increase in vocations to religious life. They also commend to your intercession a group committed to the consecrated life:

Mercedarian Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament

Please pray for these seminarians:

Juan Villanueva

Michael English

O Father, you desire all of us to be happy. Stir up the grace of a religious vocation in the hearts of many men and women. Grant to them the willingness and generosity to give of themselves, their lives, their time and their talents to the service of Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord and Savior, and to His Holy Church. May more men and women go forth as priests, deacons, brothers and sisters to bring the truths of our Catholic faith to all others so that soon they, too, may know You better and love You more...and serving You, be truly happy. Amen.

FAITH AND PRAYER

Pray for the Sick of Our Parish Family

God, like a watchful shepherd, You care for us. You make the earth yield healing herbs and medicines and give us the knowledge to learn their power. Your creative love continues through the healing hands of doctor, pharmacist and nurse, and the healing counsel of priest, minister and friend. Bless us, and all who suffer, especially these members of our parish family. Our afflictions become a cross that burdens us with fear and uncertainty. Cast out our fear and revive our faith. Give us strength that we may be filled with hope. Let the Holy Spirit come to our aid that we might live each day in the joy for which You fashioned us. We pray for healing in body, soul and spirit that we may be Your servants in this world and enjoy the fullness of Your presence in the life to come. We make this prayer humbly, knowing we cannot restrict or direct Your saving grace. We give joyful thanks for Your compassion wherever we may find it. We ask all this in the name of the Lord Jesus who intercedes before You on our behalf. Amen.

Let us pray...

Dear Lord, on this day, we remember those who have served us by protecting our freedom. When we celebrate our long weekend with our friends and family, help us remember, that our freedom to speak of you, and our freedom to worship you, and our freedom to do that which we ought to do, have all been bought at the price and sacrifice of many lives. Your son died for our eternal life in heaven. So too, your children died protecting us here on earth. Help us be mindful this weekend and always of the sacrifice made by those in uniform for all our freedoms. Amen.
