GOSPEL MEDITATION:

LK 3:15-16, 21-22

Think of what it's like to wait a long time. Can you imagine what it would be like to wait for centuries? No one person lives that long, of course. But for the Israelites, they had heard the stories from generation to generation. They had been conquered time and time again, and now "the people were filled with expectation, and all were asking in their hearts whether John might be the Christ." They had been waiting for a Messiah, one who did miraculous deeds and said profound things; someone aglow with the glory of God. We all know what it's like to hope and be disappointed. But what if your hopes were fulfilled?

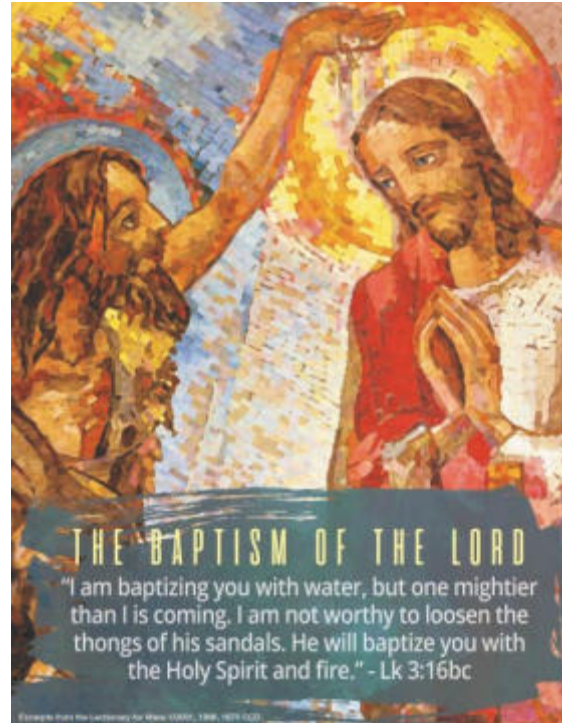

That day at the Jordan River, an audience had gathered. Among the crowd for baptism was an unknown man. Perhaps he was dirty from weeks in the desert. His hands had the calloused palms of a tradesman, a carpenter. He and John the Baptist may have embraced with the familiarity of the cousins they were. This man wades into the Jordan for a good, solid dunking. As he rises from the water, the One who breathed life into Adam gasps for air like any other man.

But then "heaven was opened." The clouds in the sky part miles above. "And the Holy Spirit descended upon him in bodily form like a dove." An apparition with substance sails through the sky. It exudes gentleness and power all at once. "And a voice came from heaven, 'You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased.'" Can you imagine the sight? For the crowd, there is no doubting what they have seen, who they have seen. Can you imagine this encounter with our God who keeps His promises? What are you waiting for?

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

At the baptism of Jesus, a voice came from heaven saying, "You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased." Through Baptism, Jesus' identity as God's Son is revealed and understood. He knows very clearly who he is. Baptism does the same for us. It gives us our identity as daughters and sons of God. We have the wonderful opportunity, given to us as a gift, to share in the same intimate relationship Jesus has with God his Father. Being a daughter or son of God gives us a unique and focused mission to which we must be faithful. Our identity, as with Jesus, is rooted in God. This is a simple fact we all must accept. Through Baptism, we are given the power and ability to see the world as God sees and to think and act as God would think and act. This is a tall order but one that will lead us to truth and ultimately to happiness.

-Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

IN OUR PARISH

Parish Mission Statement

We, the people of St. Anthony Mary Claret Parish, have as our mission to open our hearts and doors to those from all walks of life so that they, too, may share in the everlasting presence of God. Together we strive to grow closer to Jesus Christ through the Holy Eucharist. We work to foster the development of the parish, not only to strengthen our own spiritual awareness, but to impact the community as a whole.

WELCOME!

As pastor of St. Anthony Mary Claret Catholic Church, I want to express welcome from all of us to you for choosing to become a member of our parish family. We hope you will always feel at home here and that our worship and other parochial services will fulfill your spiritual needs.

Please complete an online registration form at samcsa.com or a printed one which you can find near the entrance of our church in the narthex. Return it to the parish office or drop it in the collection basket at your convenience. I hope you feel welcome here!

Sincerely in Christ,

Reverend Jan P. Klak

Words of Life

The Church considers it her duty to defend in our society as a whole the truths and values in which the very dignity of man is at stake. Accordingly, to mention one particularly important point, we have no right to judge whether an individual is “already a person” or “still a person,” and even less is it up to us to manipulate the human being or even to wish to do so.

—Pope Benedict XVI, Address to the Hon. Reinhard Schweppe, Ambassador of the Federal Republic of Germany to the Holy See, November 7, 2011

Palabras de Vida

Aquí la Iglesia, más allá del ámbito de su fe, considera que tiene el deber de defender, en la totalidad de nuestra sociedad, las verdades y los valores en los que está en juego la dignidad del hombre en cuanto tal. Así pues, por citar un punto particularmente importante, no tenemos derecho a juzgar si un individuo “ya es persona” o si “aún es persona”, y menos todavía nos corresponde manipular al hombre y, por decirlo así, querer hacerlo.

—Benedicto XVI, Discurso al honorable Reinhard Schweppe, embajador de Alemania ante la Santa Sede, 7 de noviembre 7 de 2011

THE SUNDAY FUNNIES

Two Dallas Cowboys fans are in the stadium, an empty seat between them. The first fan, noticing the empty seat, turns to the other and asks, "Who on earth would want to miss a Cowboys playoff game?" The second fan replies, "That seat belonged to my late husband. He was really looking forward to this game."
 "Oh, I'm sorry. How sad," the first says. "Couldn't you give the ticket to another friend or family member?"
 "Nope" she responds. "They're all at the funeral."

FAITH & PRAYER

PRAY FOR VOCATIONS!

Join the St. Anthony Mary Claret Vocations Committee this month as they pray for local seminarians and for an increase in vocations to religious life. These seminarians will be the recipients of your prayers this month:

Michael Coronado

Edward Gonzales

The committee also commends to your intercession a group committed to the consecrated life: Daughters of Charity of St. Vincent De Paul.

Loving God, the provider of all our needs, we, your faithful people, ask that you bless this parish and our diocese with an increase of men and women for priestly and committed ministry. Provide from among us those who will lead and work with us in priestly and consecrated service. As you call, so may you also provide the context for listening so that they may respond with generosity and joy. Form our hearts so that we may be a people given to Gospel living and generous for Christian service. Help us all to discern and pursue our vocation in life with strength and courage, making of us a priestly people. We ask this through Jesus Christ, Your Son, the priest and servant of our hearts. Amen.

Our Lady, Queen of Peace, pray for us!

PRAY FOR THE SICK OF OUR PARISH FAMILY

Almighty and Eternal God, the everlasting help of those who believe, hear us for your sick servants for whom we implore the aid of Your tender mercy, that being restored to bodily health, they may give thanks to You. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.
