Parish Mission Statement

We, the people of St. Anthony Mary Claret Parish, have as our mission to open our hearts and doors to those from all walks of life so that they, too, may share in the everlasting presence of God. Together we strive to grow closer to Jesus Christ through the Holy Eucharist. We work to foster the development of the parish, not only to strengthen our own spiritual awareness, but to impact the community as a whole.

blessed by God. What he proclaims as "woe" are states of life we often strive for, and "blessed" are the states we work hard to avoid!

Jesus is concerned with the kingdom of God and the world to come, not the typical structures of power and privilege. The word "now" appears often in these statements. Why? If you are well "now," that's beside the point. To be rich in this life has no direct bearing on your immortal soul. If you're struggling "now," that's not an indication that God has forgotten you or that - in light of eternity - you're worse off than someone else. In fact, it could be an indicator that you're enduring something that will bring you to a place of greater, eternal joy in the future.

This Sunday, consider your priorities. Who do we reject as not blessed, and thereby inflict woe upon ourselves? When we encounter difficult situations in our own lives, do we see them as opportunities to remember God and lean on His mercy and grace?

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Getting ahead in the world is something many see as important. Success, a comfortable life, and worldly securities are seen as what is needed to achieve happiness. Whether or not we like to admit it, these pursuits are operative in many of our lives. As much as we want to believe in the Gospel, we also find it hard not to cling to these other things. Unconditional trust in God must be first if we are going to perceive the kingdom of God. And while God does not want us to go out of our way to be miserable, Jesus clearly gives preference to those who are poor, hungry, weeping, marginalized, vulnerable, and despised. When people encounter these things, they touch God. It teaches us not to get too comfortable with our riches and that there is much more to true life than the stuff we find so important.

-Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

LOVE & MARRIAGE

May married couples, through their faithful and sacrificial witness, rebuild a culture of life and love.

Reflection (uscgb.org)

From the beginning of creation, God instituted marriage as a covenant between one man and one woman. He elevated this union of spouses as a sacramental sign of the love of Christ for His Church. This permanent, faithful, and fruitful union is entered into through the mutual, free consent of the spouses, who promise loving fidelity to one another. However, marriage is not merely a private matter or institution. Within the marriage rite itself, the spouses promise openness to welcoming and nurturing children through their union, thus embracing their capacity to conceive and bring forth life.

Marriage is the foundation of the family. It is within the family—the domestic Church—that children are formed to live out the Faith, to the benefit of society. If we desire to rebuild a true culture of life, we must pray for, encourage, and support couples in their pursuit of holy marriages because the family is the natural foundation of both life and love.

Reflexión (uscgb.org)

Desde el principio de la creación, Dios instituyó el matrimonio como un pacto entre un hombre y una mujer. Elevó esta unión de esposos como un signo sacramental del amor de Cristo por su Iglesia. Esta unión permanente, fiel y fructífera se realiza a través del consentimiento mutuo y libre de los cónyuges, quienes se prometen fidelidad amorosa entre sí. Sin embargo, el matrimonio no es simplemente un asunto o institución privada. Dentro del propio rito matrimonial, los cónyuges prometen estar abiertos a acoger y criar hijos a través de su unión, abrazando así su capacidad de concebir y dar vida.

El matrimonio es el fundamento de la familia. Es dentro de la familia —la Iglesia doméstica— que los niños se forman para vivir la Fe, en beneficio de la sociedad. Si deseamos reedificar una verdadera cultura de la vida, debemos orar, alentar y apoyar a las parejas en su búsqueda de matrimonios santos, porque la familia es el fundamento natural de la vida y del amor.

Intercessions for Marriage

May married couples, through their faithful and sacrificial witness, rebuild a culture of life and love.

Let us pray to the Lord.

Intercesión por el Matrimonio

Que las parejas casadas, a través, de su testimonio fiel y sacrificial reedifiquen una cultura de vida y amor.

Roguemos al Señor.

FAITH & PRAYER

PRAY FOR VOCATIONS!

Join the St. Anthony Mary Claret Vocations Committee this month as they pray for local seminarians and for an increase in vocations to religious life. These seminarians will be the recipients of your prayers this month:

Blayne Riley

Matthew De Leon

Almighty and eternal God,
in your unfailing love you provide ministers for your Church.
We pray for those whom you call to serve the Church as priests
Inspire in them a generous response.
Grant them courage and vision to serve your people.
May their lives and service call your people to respond to the presence of your Spirit among us that, faithful to the Gospel and hope of Jesus the Christ, we may:
announce glad tidings to the poor
proclaim liberty to captives, set prisoners free
and renew the face of the earth. Amen.

Our Lady, Queen of Peace, pray for us!

The committee also commends to your intercession
this order committed to the consecrated life:
Missionary Oblates of Mary Immaculate.

PRAY FOR THE SICK OF OUR PARISH FAMILY

Dear Jesus, Divine Physician and Healer of the sick, we turn to you in this time of illness. O dearest comforter of the troubled, alleviate our worry and sorrow with your gentle love, and grant us the grace and strength to accept this burden. Dear God, we place our worries in your hands. We place our sick under your care and humbly ask that you restore your servants to health again. Above all, grant us the grace to acknowledge your will and know that whatever you do, you do for the love of us. Amen.
