Scripture Reflection:

Read the Gospel: Mark 16:15-20

Gospel Summary

Most scholars believe this section was added to Mark's gospel in order to make it more compatible with the other gospel endings. Just before Jesus ascended into heaven, he commissioned the remaining eleven disciples to go into all the world and tell everyone they possibly could about the Good News. The disciples then saw Jesus lifted up bodily into heaven where he would sit at the Father's right hand.

Reflection for Families

There is an expression, "preaching to the choir." It is easy to preach to the choir because they already believe in the Good News and share our faith. The challenge for us as parents who live as disciples and teach our children that they too are disciples comes when we meet people that are not "in the choir." Do we sometimes give up or turn away from our commission to carry the Good News to all people?

Bringing the Gospel into Your Family

After reading this gospel with your family, ask each member to choose a word that most makes an impression on him/her. Once all members have shared their word, have them explain how they see that word alive in the world today, in their own actions, or in actions they think would make the world a better place. Help one another make plans to carry the Good News to others.

Discussion Starters

1. I know Jesus' spirit is with me as a disciple because...
2. I see signs of other disciples bringing the Good News into the world when...
3. One way I will take the Good News into all the world is...

Prayer for Mothers

Dear God,
 on this day that we honor mothers,
 may we draw strength
 from the mothers who went before us.
 May we remember Jochebed, mother of Moses,
 who gave her son over to God's providence
 when forces that threatened him were beyond her control.
 May we remember the mother of Mary, St. Anne, who helped her daughter learn an openness to God's will.
 May we remember St. Monica,
 who suffered an abusive spouse and her son's poor choices,
 but lived to see her child's return to God.
 Most of all, we remember Mary.
 Though she watched her child suffer and die,
 she also saw his resurrection and glory
 and was in turn glorified by him. Amen.

RESPECT LIFE

Words of Life

“We can all help encourage our government and other institutions to support life. They must always aid and support mothers and children, and never offer to pay for the destruction of life as a ‘solution’ to the challenges women face. The call to uphold women’s dignity and well-being, and that of their unborn children, is one and the same.”

— USCCB Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities “Poverty and Abortion: A Vicious Cycle,” www.bit.ly/poverty-abortion

Palabras De Vida

“Y todos podemos apoyar a animar a nuestro gobierno y a otras instituciones a que apoyen la vida. Siempre deben ayudar y apoyar a las madres e hijos, y nunca ofrecer pagar la destrucción de la vida como una “solución” a los desafíos que enfrentan las mujeres. El llamado a defender la dignidad y el bienestar de las mujeres y los de sus hijos por nacer, es uno y el mismo.”

— Secretariado de Actividades Pro-Vida de la USCCB “La pobreza y el aborto: un círculo vicioso”, www.bit.ly/un-circulo-vicioso

Pray for the Sick of Our Parish Family

Dear Jesus, Divine Physician and Healer of the sick, we turn to you in this time of illness. O dearest comforter of the troubled, alleviate our worry and sorrow with your gentle love, and grant us the grace and strength to accept this burden. Dear God, we place our worries in your hands. We place our sick under your care and humbly ask that you restore your servants to health again. Above all, grant us the grace to acknowledge your will and know that whatever you do, you do for the love of us. Amen.

SUNDAY FUNNIES

During morning church service, the pastor notices a mother with a fidgety seven-year-old boy. Eventually the boy settles down. After the service was over, the mother greeted the pastor. He asked her how she finally got her son to sit still and be quiet. "Oh, that was easy," she proudly responded. "About halfway through the sermon, I leaned over and whispered, 'If you're not quiet, the pastor is going to lose his place and will have to start his sermon all over again!'"

LOVE, MARRIAGE & FAMILY

Raising Chaste Children in a Pornographic World - Conclusion

by Ryan Foley

5. Cultivate loving, trusting relationships with your children so they feel comfortable approaching you with questions about sexuality or sexual images they may have inadvertently seen.

Ephesians 6:4 says a father should bring up his children using “training” and “instruction.” These two activities encompass much of what the Bible says to parents about good parenting, namely providing an environment of structure and support. And of course, this applies to mothers, too. As parents, when you provide your children with both structure and support, you will not be authoritarian (overly demanding with no warmth) or permissive (very responsive and warm with no expectations), but lovingly authoritative.

Permissive parents (all support, little structure) unwittingly train children to believe that their every whim and desire is good. These parents falsely believe that the best way to nurture a child’s character is through fewer rules and more familial love. While on the surface their approach appears loving and nurturing—especially compared to stricter parents—these indulgent parents raise children who easily wander into the minefield of sexual sin and have little experience with resisting temptation and desires.

On the other end of the spectrum, authoritarian parents (all structure, little support) train children to seek refuge anywhere but at home. These parents create an overly critical home devoid of affirmation and encouragement. Kids in these homes start to believe that their parents don’t care about them, or that they will never measure up to their standards. These legalistic parents unwittingly chase their children into the minefield of sexual sin.

But when parents give both strong structure and loving support to their children, they raise wise children who desire righteousness, and loved children who know they can turn to their parents for help and mercy. God is always ready to bestow mercy on us. Through loving interactions with a parent, children come to experience, and then learn to trust, in this mercy.

Please pray for these seminarians:

O Father, you desire all of us to be happy. Stir up the grace of a religious vocation in the hearts of many men and women. Grant to them the willingness and generosity to give of themselves, their lives, their time and their talents to the service of Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord and Savior, and to His Holy Church. May more men and women go forth as priests, deacons, brothers and sisters to bring the truths of our Catholic faith to all others so that soon they, too, may know You better and love You more... and serving You, be truly happy. Amen.
