The Nativity of St. John the Baptist

GOSPEL MEDITATION: LUKE 1:57-66, 80

Tiny fingers and toes. A little yawn. A loud cry. An infant wrapped in swaddling clothes. "What will this child be?" It is a question every parent asks time and time again. As first steps are taken, as personalities emerge, as a child shows interest in reading or drawing or climbing, the question is on our lips. "What will this child be?" This question is asked as John the Baptist is born. Will he be a priest like his father? Does his strange, unexpected name signal a departure from that inheritance? Could Elizabeth and Zechariah ever have predicted what would be?

Under the tutelage of his priestly father, John "became strong in spirit." As an adult, John would retreat into the desert to preach repentance. He would attract a large following and eventually attract the attention of the rulers of the day. He would point out the adulterous ways of King Herod and would find himself in prison. Eventually, he would be beheaded. But today, he is a child, an infant newly born.

On this special feast, we're reminded of the great humility required of parents. The character formation, the discipline and encouragement, the violin lessons and soccer practices—every parental effort is subjected to the decisions of the child himself. Even children on a sure track by high school graduation transform under life's circumstances. Entrusting our children to God can be incredibly intimidating. "What will this child be"—especially when that transformation lies outside of my control? John the Baptist's story might not have ended as his parents imagined. But he is celebrated as the greatest of the prophets, as the one who prepared the way for the Messiah. Here is the hope of all Christian parents: that our children would be raised in such a way that when people meet them, they meet Jesus Christ.

RESPECT LIFE

RELIGIOUS FREEDOM WEEK: JUNE 22 -29

Pray

May the Lord protect all migrants and refugees, and may all those who work with people on the move be free to serve.

Reflect

The Church has long sought to serve the unique needs of "people on the move," from providing for basic needs, to assisting with resettlement, to offering legal services to help newcomers navigate the system of their host country. The Church provides exceptional service in this area and plays an indispensable role in our nation's immigration and refugee resettlement system. In recent years, Christian services have faced legal attacks, because the Church refuses to facilitate abortions for the children who come under our care. Groups like the ACLU set up a perverse dilemma, trying to force the Church to choose between unborn children and migrant children. By defending religious freedom, we are saying that we refuse to make such a choice.

Act

The USCCB's Justice for Immigrants Campaign is an effort to unite and mobilize a growing network of Catholic entities and people of goodwill in support of immigration reform. To learn more about the Church's work with migrants and refugees, get news, resources, and action alerts from Justice for Immigrants at justiceforimmigrants.org.

Source: United States Conference of Catholic Bishops

Reza

Que el Señor proteja a todos los migrantes y refugiados, y que todos los que trabajan con gente que se desplazan, sean libres para servir.

Reflexiona

Desde hace tiempo, la Iglesia busca servir las necesidades únicas de la "gente que se desplaza", desde satisfacer las necesidades básicas, ayudar con el reasentamiento, hasta ofrecer servicios jurídicos para ayudar a los recién llegados a conocer el sistema de su país anfitrión. La Iglesia brinda un servicio excepcional en esta área y tiene un rol indispensable en el sistema migratorio y de reasentamiento de refugiados de nuestra Nación. En los últimos años, los servicios cristianos sufrieron ataques jurídicos, porque la Iglesia se niega a facilitar abortos para las jóvenes que llegan bajo nuestro cuidado. Grupos como ACLU establecen un dilema perverso, tratando de obligar a la Iglesia a escoger entre los niños por nacer y los niños inmigrantes. Al defender la libertad religiosa, estamos diciendo que nos negamos a inclinarnos por tal opción.

Actúa

La Campaña Justicia para los Inmigrantes de la USCCB consiste en un esfuerzo para unir y movilizar una red creciente de entidades católicas y personas de buena voluntad que apoyan la reforma migratoria. Para aprender más sobre la labor de la Iglesia con inmigrantes y refugiados, vea noticias, recursos y alertas de acción de Justicia para los Inmigrantes en justiceforimmigrants.org.

Catholics across the United States are encouraged to pray and act in support of religious liberty at home and abroad during Serving Others in God's Love: Religious Freedom Week 2018, which begins on June 22, the Feast of Saints Thomas More and John Fisher, and ends on June 29, the Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul.

The chairman of the USCCB's Committee for Religious Liberty, Archbishop Joseph E. Kurtz of Louisville, states: "Religious freedom allows the space for people of faith to serve others in God's love in ministries like education, adoption and foster care, health care, and migration and refugee services. We encourage people of faith to reflect on the importance of religious freedom so that we might have the space to carry out our mission of service and mercy, and we invite everyone to pray for our brothers and sisters who face intense persecution in other parts of the world."

Resources for Religious Freedom Week and other religious liberty resources can be found here:

www.usccb.org/ReligiousFreedomWeek and www.usccb.org/freedom.

Intercessions for Life

For our lawmakers: may they defend our freedom to follow our consciences in serving God and neighbor according to our faith. We pray to the Lord.

Intercesiones por la Vida

Por nuestros legisladores: para que defiendan nuestra libertad de seguir nuestra conciencia al servir a Dios y al prójimo conforme a nuestra fe. Roguemos al Señor.

Prayer for Newly Ordained Priests

O Jesus, our great High Priest, hear our humble prayers on behalf of these newly ordained priests. Give them a deep faith, a bright and firm hope, and a burning love which will ever increase in the course of their priestly lives. In their loneliness, comfort them; in their sorrows, strengthen them; in their frustrations, point out to them that it is through suffering that the soul is purified. Show them that they are needed by the Church, they are needed by souls, they are needed for the work of redemption. O loving Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of Priests, take to your heart your sons who are close to you because of their priestly ordinations, and because of the power which they have received to carry on the work of Christ in a world which needs them so much. Be their comfort, be their joy, be their strength, and especially help them to live and to defend the ideals of consecrated celibacy. Amen.

Why join the Catholic Church?

If you are asking the question, perhaps God is leading you to an answer. We believe you will find the fullness of Christianity in the teaching of the Catholic Church. Through RCIA/RCIC interested adults and children come to know the presence of God and learn how a relationship with Him can change their lives. It is an opportunity to see what the Catholic Church believes and how we live our faith. In the RCIA process, we will study the scriptures, discuss Catholic teaching, and most importantly, get a true, good and honest idea about what the Catholic Church is really all about. We are always interested in new inquiries. If you or someone you know would like to become a Catholic, or if you were baptized Catholic but have never celebrated
