GOSPEL MEDITATION: MARK 6:7-13

"He summoned the Twelve and began to send them out two by two." This Sunday we read the first sending of the Apostles to preach, teach, and heal. For many of us, it can be easy to think we "just don't have enough" to be disciples and evangelists ourselves. We don't have enough education and training. We don't have enough experience talking to people about Jesus. We don't pray enough. We don't have enough faith.

If you look at the Apostles in today's Gospel reading, they didn't have much either. "No food, no sack, no money in their belts." They didn't plan out their itinerary or book their lodging in advance. From what we know of the Apostles, they were not the religiously trained and educated ones. They were fisherman, tax collectors, and political activists. But what does being a fisherman require? Someone like Peter needed a strong work ethic to rise at strange hours. He needed patient calm to wait for the catch. Once ashore, he needed a savvy mind to fetch a good price for his labors.

As Peter became a fisher of men, he would need diligence to persevere through the hard journeys, long days, and persecution that awaited him. He would need patient calm with those who disagreed with him. As the leader of the Apostles, he would need a savvy mind to navigate challenges facing the early Church. From one perspective, Peter has nothing to offer the mission of Jesus. Thinking more creatively, one can see that -- joined with faith and love -- perhaps Peter had everything he needed.

Jesus sends you as well. As you take stock of your own talents, consider how they might be offered as a gift to others. Maybe you already have more than enough.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Do you describe yourself as a holy person? For many, becoming holy may not be seen as a desirous goal. We are all called to be holy but maybe not in the way we often imagined. Holiness is nothing more than doing ordinary things with great love and faith. St. Teresa of Calcutta says, "Holiness is not something extraordinary. Holiness is for every one of us as a simple duty -- the acceptance of God with a smile, at all times, anywhere and everywhere." Holiness has to do with understanding that our faith has a lot to do with how we see and live life. It is that simple. Are you willing to go about the simple business of your life and be holy?

-Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

Ven, Holy Spirit, Ven!

July 6, 2018

My dear brother priests,

As you know, there has been world-wide anxiety regarding refugees and migrants from many places and for a variety of reasons. From those escaping war and terror in the Middle East or poverty and hunger in Africa, even to those at our own borders escaping violence, drugs, and corruption in Central America and Mexico, migrants and refugees are more prevalent now than at any time since the end of the Second World War. America, European countries, and many other places are straining to cope with this reality. Tensions are high as some find refugees to be a threat, while others wish to respond with a courageous spirit of welcome and trust for these people.

Our Holy Father, Pope Francis, has called for us to respond with open hearts and a humane spirit to the needs of migrants and refugees. We must respond to them with the attitude of Christ, who calls us to welcome the stranger.

The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops has consistently called for compassion regarding issues related to our nation's borders, and we have been critical of both Democratic and Republican leaders for not addressing the issue of immigration reform. If it had not been clear that our nation is in need of a serious and just immigration reform, it should be by now! We have experienced nothing short of a crisis at our borders in recent years with the arrival of unaccompanied minors, young parents with children, and many people in need. We have witnessed the bureaucratic treatment of these human beings as they try to enter our nation, in spite of the fact that many are seeking asylum from violence and fear of death. This whole situation is unjust, inhumane, and brings out the worst of prejudices within our culture.

The Bishops have consistently said that every nation has a right to secure its borders, but that it must also reform its immigration processes so that people are treated justly, humanely, and compassionately. The weekend of July 14-15, I will ask our parishioners across the archdiocese to write to our national leaders in the Senate and House of Representatives, urging them to move forward with a dignified immigration reform, and to change the laws that allow for the separation of children from their parents. To that end, you will receive postcard pages for your parishioners to sign and instructions on how to handle them. A copy of these directions and a sample postcard page are included with this letter.

Congress has the power to act and help heal the terrible wounds plaguing us in this situation. We are not asking for a partisan decision and we are not supporting one political party over another. We are on the side of human beings, just as we are with all life-related issues, from abortion to euthanasia, the death penalty, child hunger, and the whole range of issues that affect the dignity and respect of the human person.

As we just celebrated the independence of our country this 4th of July, let us take a stand again for freedom, respect, and the God-given rights of every human being.

Fraternity in Christ, our High Priest,

Most Reverend Gustavo Garcia-Siller, M.Sp.S.

6 de julio de 2018

Queridos hermanos sacerdotes,

Como saben, ha habido gran ansiedad en todo el mundo con respecto a los refugiados y migrantes que provienen de muchos lugares y por diversas razones. Desde aquellos que escapan de la guerra y el terror en Medio Oriente, o de la pobreza y el hambre en África, e incluso hasta aquellos en nuestras fronteras que escapan de la violencia, las drogas y la corrupción en América Central y México, hoy más migrantes y refugiados abren que en cualquier otro momento desde el final de la Segunda Guerra Mundial! Estados Unidos, los países europeos y muchos otros lugares se esfuerzan por hacer frente a esta realidad. Las tensiones son altas, ya que algunos consideran que los refugiados son una amenaza, mientras que otros desean responder con valeroso espíritu de bienvenida y confianza para estas personas.

Nuestro Santo Padre, el Papa Francisco, nos ha pedido que respondamos con un corazón abierto y un espíritu compasivo a las necesidades de los inmigrantes y refugiados. Debemos responderles con la actitud de Cristo, que nos llama a dar la bienvenida al forastero.

La Conferencia de Obispos Católicos de Estados Unidos constantemente ha pedido compasión con respecto a las cuestiones relacionadas con las fronteras de nuestra nación y hemos sido críticos tanto de los líderes demócratas como de los republicanos por no abordar el tema de la reforma migratoria. Si no hubiera quedado claro antes que nuestra nación necesita una reforma migratoria seria y justa, ¡debería estarlo ahora! En los últimos años hemos vivido nada menos que una crisis en nuestras fronteras con la llegada de millones no acompañados, padres jóvenes junto con sus hijos y muchas personas necesitadas. Hemos sido testigos del tratamiento burocrático de estos seres humanos que tratan de ingresar a nuestra nación, a pesar del hecho de que muchos buscan asilo de la violencia y terror la muerte. Toda esta situación es injusta, inhumana y saca a relucir los peores prejuicios dentro de nuestra cultura.

Los Obispos hemos dicho consistentemente que cada nación tiene derecho a asegurar sus fronteras, pero que también debe reformar sus procesos de inmigración para que las personas sean tratadas con justicia, humanidad y compasión. El fin de semana del 14 al 15 de julio les pediré a nuestros feligreses de toda la Arquidiócesis que escriban a nuestros líderes nacionales en el Senado y en la Cámara de Representantes, instándoles a avanzar con una reforma migratoria digna y a cambiar las leyes que permiten la separación de los menores de sus padres. Con ese fin, la próxima semana recibirán plantillas de tarjetas postales para que sus feligreses las firmen, e instrucciones sobre qué hacer con ellas. A esta carta se adjunta una copia de esas instrucciones y una muestra de la plantilla de tarjetas postales.

El Congreso tiene el poder de actuar y ayudar a sanar las terribles heridas que nos aquejan en esta situación. No estamos pidiendo una decisión partidista y no estamos apoyando a un partido político sobre otro. Estamos del lado de los seres humanos, así como lo estamos con todos los asuntos relacionados con la vida, desde el aborto hasta la eutanasia, la pena de muerte, el hambre infantil y toda la gama de cuestiones que afectan la dignidad y el respeto de la persona humana.

¡Habiendo celebrado la independencia de nuestro país este 4 de julio, tomemos nuevamente una posición en defensa de la libertad, el respeto y los derechos que Dios ha dado a todo ser humano!

Fraternalmente en Cristo,

Monseñor Gustavo Garcia Siller, M.Sp.S.
Arzobispo de San Antonio

LET US SHARE THE JOURNEY

Adonai, Lord and Master,
Many are the journeys your people have taken:
Abraham's journey led from fear to understanding;
Moses' journey led from bondage to liberty;
the disciples' journey led from death to new life.

Even today, your people journey—
immigrants and refugees, pilgrims and nomads,
searching for hope,
searching for opportunity,
searching for you.

Lord, I know that I too am called to journey.
Continue to call me beyond my comfort and into encounter.

And when I meet a companion on the road,
may we find you in each other's embrace.
Let us share the journey.

Amen

“The love of Christ can restore to spouses the joy of journeying together. This is what marriage is all about: man and woman walking together, wherein the husband helps his wife to become ever more a woman, and wherein the woman has the task of helping her husband to become ever more a man.” —Pope Francis, Homily on June 14, 2014

Conflict is inevitable, but doesn't have to be damaging or hurtful. If approached in the right way and handled well, it can be a healthy thing in a relationship. However, sometimes perspective gets shifted from your beloved to the conflict itself. Instead of working together, you work in opposition. The key to a healthy resolution is to address not only the conflict itself, but also the underlying factors causing it.

Why join the Catholic Church?

If you are asking the question, perhaps God is leading you to an answer. We believe you will find the fullness of Christianity in the teaching of the Catholic Church. Through RCIA/RCIC interested adults and children come to know the presence of God and learn how a relationship with Him can change their lives. It is an opportunity to see what the Catholic Church believes and how we live our faith. In the RCIA process, we will study the scriptures, discuss Catholic teaching, and most importantly, get a true, good and honest idea about what the Catholic Church is really all about. We are always interested in new inquiries. If you or someone you know would like to become a Catholic, or if you were baptized Catholic but have never celebrated

The Traveling Priest Program

an initiative of the St. Anthony Mary Claret Vocations Committee

St. John Vianney is the patron saint of priests. To assist families in praying for vocations in our parish, a statue of this beloved saint will be available to host in their homes for a one-week period.

HOW IT WORKS:

- Each week The Traveling Priest statue will stay with a new family
- Once you receive it into your home, place it in a prominent place.
- Pray daily using the prayers in the accompanying brochure.
- Continue to pray for vocations by adding that petition to your family's prayers.
- Returning/receiving of The Traveling Priest statue occurs at one of the weekend Masses. You will be notified at which Mass you are to receive the statue.

Currently there are host families signed up to cover the next several months.

To be placed on the waiting list, call the parish office at 210-688-9033.
