Parish Mission Statement

We, the people of St. Anthony Mary Claret Parish, have as our mission to open our hearts and doors to those from all walks of life so that they, too, may share in the everlasting presence of God. Together we strive to grow closer to Jesus Christ through the Holy Eucharist. We work to foster the development of the parish, not only to strengthen our own spiritual awareness, but to impact the community as a whole.

GOSPEL MEDITATION:

LK 13:1-9

"There once was a person who had a fig tree planted in his orchard, and when he came in search of fruit on it [he] found none." We live in a results-driven society. It can be easy to put pressure on ourselves to succeed. If we're not keeping up with the perceived "good life" of those around us, we feel anxious and disappointed. Some of the Gospel stories about fruitfulness can seem to play out in this fashion. "For three years now I have come in search of fruit on this fig tree but have found none. So cut it down." The message seems to be clear. Abide in God and bear fruit! Stand apart from God and be barren. But what happens when we're trying, but the growth we wanted doesn't seem to be coming our way? What if it feels like life just isn't bearing fruit?

This Sunday, Jesus gives us a sign of hope. "[The gardener] said to him in reply, 'Sir, leave it for this year also; it may bear fruit in the future.'"

How quick we can be to judge! Perhaps you started out Lent with high hopes and big ideas for getting closer to God. Maybe things haven't gone exactly like you thought. It can be easy to lose patience with our failures or slow growth. We shouldn't be too quick to assume that God has given up on us. He hasn't.

IN OUR PARISH

WELCOME!

As pastor of St. Anthony Mary Claret Catholic Church, I want to express welcome from all of us to you for choosing to become a member of our parish family. We hope you will always feel at home here and that our worship and other parochial services will fulfill your spiritual needs.

Please complete an online registration form at samcsa.com or a printed one which you can find near the entrance of our church in the narthex. Return it to the parish office or drop it in the collection basket at your convenience. I hope you feel welcome here!

Sincerely in Christ,

The same ideas apply to those around us. Perhaps we're the planter of the fig tree. We expect a certain amount of growth from someone in our life, and they just aren't measuring up. Let today's Gospel be a gentle nudge for mercy. As Lent continues to unfold, be patient with yourself and those around you. Wait for God to provide the growth.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

If salvation history teaches us anything, it's that God is very patient. Time and time again, people have wandered away from Him and He has sent prophet after prophet to lead them back. To show us just how much He does love us, He sent us His Son who revealed this unconditional love in all that he said and did. This Lenten season is an opportunity to repent and turn back. The mystery of God's presence is revealed in and through the ordinary events of life as the birth of Christ reminds us. God told Moses through the burning bush, "I am who am." And so he reminds us today. Let us turn away no more and turn back to truth.

-Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

RESPECT LIFE

Words of Life

As adults we cannot claim that the Church's moral truths are unavailable to us. The Catechism teaches that the moral law is inscribed in our hearts by God, and that we have a duty to educate and form our conscience so that we can make good judgments and act morally (see CCC, 1776-1794). It has never been easier to access the wisdom of the Church on issues of life and chastity—the writings of popes, bishops, and good moral theologians are only a Google search away.

But recognizing that an act is sinful is just the first step toward reconciliation. We must also repent of our action, and that usually entails dropping our excuses or rationalizations for the wrong we commit. How many parents, faced with a diagnosis of genetic problems in their unborn child, have succumbed to the advice of doctors and loved ones to end the child's life to "prevent the child's suffering"?

— Susan E. Wills, Asst. Director for Education and Outreach, USCCB Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities, "Finding Truth and Peace This Lent," March 4, 2011, www.usccb.org.

Join the St. Anthony Mary Claret Respect Life Ministry for a showing of the breakthrough pro-life movie Unplanned, the story of Abby Johnson and her amazing conversion from dedicated Planned Parenthood clinic director to outspoken pro-life advocate.

Intercessions for Life

For all Christians: may we live out our baptismal call to proclaim the Gospel and be messengers of God's love for every human life. We pray to the Lord.

Intercesiones por la Vida

Por todos los cristianos: que podamos vivir nuestro llamado bautismal para proclamar el Evangelio y ser mensajeros del amor de Dios por cada vida humana. Roguemos al Señor.

LENTEN PRACTICES

Lenten Resolutions for Married Couples, Inspired by Pope Francis – Part 2 of 2

by Bethany Meola, Assistant Director of the USCCB Secretariat of Laity, Marriage, Family Life and Youth

Are you wondering how to grow in holiness this Lent, together with your spouse? Try following some advice from the Pope! In his homilies and addresses, Pope Francis has spoken quite directly about how husband and wife should treat each other, about prayer within the family, and other ways the family lives its identity as a "domestic Church." So this Lent, why not commit with your spouse to try one of the following Lenten resolutions, based on words from the Holy Father?

4. Pray together with your spouse and family. "Praying the Our Father together, around the table, is not something extraordinary: it's easy. And praying the Rosary together, as a family, is very beautiful and a source of great strength! And also praying for one another! The husband for his wife, the wife for her husband, both together for their children, the children for their grandparents...praying for each other. This is what it means to pray in the family and it is what makes the family strong: prayer." (Homily for Family Day, Rome, Oct. 27, 2013)
Pray to the Lord to "multiply your love and give it to you fresh and good each day." Pray together, "Lord, give us this day our daily love." (Address to Engaged Couples, Rome, Feb. 14, 2014)
5. Visit the elderly, especially your grandparents. "Grandparents are like the wisdom of the family, they are the wisdom of a people. ... Listen to your grandparents." (Address to Participants in the Pilgrimage of Families, Rome, Oct. 26, 2013)
"How important grandparents are for family life, for passing on the human and religious heritage which is so essential for each and every society!" (Angelus at World Youth Day, Rio de Janeiro, July 26, 2013)
6. Share the faith with others. "Christian families are missionary families. ... They are missionary also in everyday life, in their doing everyday things, as they bring to everything the salt and the leaven of faith!" (Homily for Family Day, Rome, Oct. 27, 2013)

FAITH & PRAYER

PRAY FOR VOCATIONS!

Join the St. Anthony Mary Claret Vocations Committee this month as they pray for local seminarians and for an increase in vocations to religious life. These seminarians will be the recipients of your prayers this month:

Ottmar Tovar

Rafael Becerra

O Father, you desire all of us to be happy. Stir up the grace of a religious vocation in the hearts of many men and women.

Grant to them the willingness and generosity to give of themselves, their lives, their time and their talents to the service of Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord and Savior, and to His Holy Church.

May more men and women go forth as priests, deacons, brothers and sisters to bring the truths of our Catholic faith to all others so that soon they, too, may know You better and love You more... and serving You, be truly happy. Amen.

Our Lady, Queen of Peace, pray for us!

The committee also commends to your intercession this order committed to the consecrated life: Sisters of Perpetual Adoration of Guadalupe.

PRAY FOR THE SICK OF OUR PARISH FAMILY

God our Father, your Son accepted our sufferings to teach us the virtue of patience in human illness. Hear the prayers we offer for our sick. May all who suffer pain, illness, or disease realize that they have been chosen to be saints and know that they are joined to Christ in his suffering for the salvation of the world. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.
