Parish Mission Statement

We, the people of St. Anthony Mary Claret Parish, have as our mission to open our hearts and doors to those from all walks of life so that they too may share in the everlasting presence of God. Together we strive to grow closer to Jesus Christ through the Holy Eucharist. We work to foster the development of the parish, not only to strengthen our own spiritual awareness, but to impact the community as a whole.

GOSPEL MEDITATION: LK 10:25-37

Loving isn't too difficult, right? Many of us are surrounded by kind, lovely people trying to do the right thing. Indeed, to "love your neighbor as yourself" seems like it should be easy enough. Treat people like you would like to be treated. Bring the new neighbors some baked goods (normal and gluten-free, just in case). Chat with the bank teller about his holiday weekend. Write an occasional card to your sister "just because." There were probably varieties of these acts of kindness in Jesus' day. Perhaps substituting figs for cookies. But "exchange pleasantries with the traveling cloth merchant" isn't the example Jesus gives.

"A man fell victim to robbers...they stripped him and beat him and went off leaving him half-dead." The righteous pass by the scene of the dying man. The hero of the story is the one on the margins of Jewish society, who perhaps would not have been welcomed, in other circumstances, by the man now in the ditch. His neighborly love causes him to halt his journey, to tend wounds, and to pay for the man's care out of his own savings. Are we interruptible? Are we attentive to the hurts of

IN OUR PARISH

WELCOME!

As pastor of St. Anthony Mary Claret Catholic Church, I want to express welcome from all of us to you for choosing to become a member of our parish family. We hope you will always feel at home here and that our worship and other parochial services will fulfill your spiritual needs.

Please complete an online registration form at samcsa.com or a printed one which you can find near the entrance of our church in the narthex. Return it to the parish office or drop it in the collection basket at your convenience.

I hope you feel welcome here!
Sincerely in Christ,
Rev. Jan P. Klak

others? Are we generous with our money and possessions?

In the past few weeks, who has crossed your mind as someone in need of help? Perhaps it's an acquaintance suffering from cancer. Maybe you were invited to donate or volunteer to a local social cause, but it just won't stick in your mind (or schedule) to make it happen. The needs of people are many and varied. We can't help everyone, but God does place opportunities in our path for compassion and courageous love. This week, be "the one who treated him with mercy."

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

We have heard the story of the Good Samaritan so many times. Have we ever realized that it is an enemy and outcast who is the hero of the story? Freed from laws that limit acts of mercy and compassion, the Samaritan becomes the example of how to love God by loving our neighbor. Our minds know what our faith teaches, and our mouths know what words to speak. Ultimately, deep down in our conscience, we know how we ought to act. Yet, as we encounter each new day, do we always do what we are called to do? Our neighbors live next to us and far away. They are down the street, sitting beside us, living in Mexico, Honduras, Ecuador, Guatemala, Poland, Russia, China, Korea, and Iraq. Our neighbors are even found in people who want to hurt us. How do we love them as Jesus asks us to? How we answer this question will determine how much we really love God.

LOVE & MARRIAGE

Male and Female He Created Them

On June 10, 2019, the Vatican Congregation for Catholic Education released a reflection on human sexuality entitled: " 'Male and Female He Created Them': Towards a Path of Dialogue on the Question of Gender Theory in Education." (You can read the document in its entirety here: http://www.educatio.va/content/dam/cec/Documenti/19_0997_INGLESE.pdf.)

The document is the fullest exposition of the concept of gender (gender identity, gender fluidity, 'transgenderism,' etc.) that has been released from the Vatican to date. It is concerned with the "educational crisis... in the field of affectivity and sexuality" (no. 1) and reiterates Catholic anthropology, rooted in Sacred Scripture and Tradition. "The Christian vision of anthropology sees sexuality as a fundamental component of one's personhood" (no. 4).

The document seeks to combat the dualism that is operative in the idea that "one's gender ends up being viewed as more important than being of male or female sex. The effect of this move is chiefly to create a cultural and ideological revolution driven by relativism, and secondarily a juridical revolution, since such beliefs claim specific rights for the individual and across society" (no. 20). This is precisely what legislation such as the Equality Act does. (Read about the U.S. Bishops' March 20, 2019 letter to Congress opposing the Equality Act here: <http://www.usccb.org/news/2019/19-055.cfm>.)

From www.marriageuniqueforareason.org, an initiative of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops that offers resources to assist with the education and catechesis of Catholics on why marriage is unique and why it should be promoted and protected as the union of one man and one woman. Catholic Weddings: The Questions Before Consent

"The Questions before the Consent" are an important part of a Catholic wedding ceremony. True to its name, this moment entails the celebrant (priest or deacon) asking the bride and groom a series of questions immediately before they exchange their consent and are married. As the Order of Celebrating Matrimony explains, these questions involve the couple's "freedom of choice, fidelity to each other, and the acceptance and upbringing of children" (no. 60). While they are asked the questions together, each person must answer the questions individually. It is a solemn moment, as bride and groom pledge before God and the community their intention to undertake through God's grace the vocation of life-long marriage, a permanent union open to the gift of new life.

Celebrant:

[Name] and [Name], have you come here to enter into Marriage without coercion, freely and wholeheartedly?

The bridegroom and bride each say: I have.

The celebrant continues: Are you prepared, as you follow the path of Marriage, to love and honor each other for as long as you both shall live?

The bridegroom and bride each say: I am.

The following question may be omitted, if circumstances suggest this, for example, if the couple are advanced in years.

Celebrant: Are you prepared to accept children lovingly from God and to bring them up according to the law of Christ and his Church?

The bridegroom and bride each say: I am.

FAITH & PRAYER

PRAY FOR VOCATIONS!

Join the St. Anthony Mary Claret Vocations Committee this month as they pray for local seminarians and for an increase in vocations to religious life. These seminarians will be the recipients of your prayers this month:

Ottmar Tovar

Robert Shelton

Loving and gracious God, your son Jesus reminded us: "To love one another as I have loved you" (John 15:12). May we never forget Jesus' words in all that we do. We pray for an increase of vocations to the priesthood, diaconate and consecrated life in the Archdiocese of San Antonio. Give us the gifts of the Holy Spirit so we can serve you more faithfully in our own vocations of married, single, religious or priestly life. Help us to support one another in our vocations and to work together to build up your kingdom here on earth. Amen.

Our Lady, Queen of Peace, pray for us!

Memorial Bricks: A beautiful way to honor your deceased loved ones

Each year the St. Anthony Claret Respect Life Ministry honors the beloved deceased by placing memorial bricks in the Memorial Garden and offering special prayers for them at the All Soul's Day Mass. Order bricks now through Sept. 13 for this year's installation.

Order forms available in the parish office and in the narthex. For info, contact Kelly Comeau at room4more@twc.com.

The parish community mourns the loss of longtime parishioner Dan Calderon who recently passed away. We offer our deepest condolences to his family and in particular to his wife, Rita.

Prayer for the Dearly Departed

Immortal God, holy Lord, Father and protector of all you have created, we raise our hearts to you today for those who have passed out of this mortal life. In your loving mercy, Father of all, be pleased to receive them in your heavenly company, and forgive the failings and faults they may have done from human frailty. We ask you this in the name of Jesus Christ, our Lord, who suffered and died for us that we might live with Him in your sight forever. Amen.
