Parish Mission Statement

We, the people of St. Anthony Mary Claret Parish, have as our mission to open our hearts and doors to those from all walks of life so that they too may share in the everlasting presence of God. Together we strive to grow closer to Jesus Christ through the Holy Eucharist. We work to foster the development of the parish, not only to strengthen our own spiritual awareness, but to impact the community as a whole.

GOSPEL MEDITATION: MT 15:21-28

We are hardwired for wholeness and crave it. When something is broken, we want it fixed. If a part of our body is not working properly, we want it healed. How often do we find ourselves saying, "I'm tired of struggling with this cold, I can't wait for my surgery to heal, or I want my treatments to make me better." Wholeness and healing restore our relationships and make us free to love as we desire. We know very well how our limitations, imperfections, and brokenness really limit us. They can easily prevent us from being and doing what we want to do.

Our physical and emotional wounds and maladies are easier to identify. If my back hurts, I feel it and know what part of my body needs attention. If I am feeling intense anger, I can identify the emotion and take necessary steps to uncover its cause. Being persistent often brings greater and quicker results. But will pursuing and even achieving our physical and emotional healings really be enough? We forget that there is a deeper healing that we seek and desperately need. As we look around at humanity, there are some physical and emotional wounds and scars that cannot be made whole. They are limitations that must remain and, for one reason or another, cannot be rectified. Does this mean that the wholeness and healing that my being longs for is not possible for me? Must I settle with less than what God promises?

The answer is no. Ultimately, there is a desire that goes deeper than the physical and emotional. It is a desire that resides in our soul. What we really seek and thirst for is healing and wholeness for our soul. Inner strength, conviction, focus, grounding, love, hope, faith, courage, determination, peace, and connectedness are all words that center us on eternity. They direct us to a presence we discover in our core, which is none other than the presence of God. In God, we are healed. When we are persistent in reaching out to and establishing our relationship with God, real healing and wholeness begin to happen.

There are some limitations and some of our brokenness with which we may simply have to live. This does not mean that we have to abandon our journey to wholeness and healing. If we have done our inner soul work, we have worked toward and acquired what and who we ultimately need and desire.

As happened a couple of years ago, some parishioners have reported receiving emails claiming to be from Father Jan with the impersonator asking for assistance or a donation. Please DO NOT RESPOND OR SEND DONATIONS TO THESE PERSONS. These are scams. Disregard or delete these messages. You may also wish to block them so as not to receive any further correspondence from them.

FAITH & PRAYER

PRAY FOR VOCATIONS!

We invite you and your family to pray for local seminarians and for an increase in vocations to religious life. These seminarians will be the recipients of your prayers this month.

Stephen FitzSimon

Robert Shelton

Lord Jesus, we ask you to send more servants to your people. Choose from our parishes, from our homes, from our schools and colleges, an abundant harvest of apostles for your Kingdom: priests, sisters, brothers, deacons and lay ministers. We pray that those you call may never lose awareness of the dignity and need of their vocation. O Virgin Mary, Mother of the Church, teach to all those the Master calls to say a joyful "yes" as you did at the Annunciation. Amen.

The committee also commends to your intercession this order committed to the consecrated life:

Maryknoll Sisters

Prayer for a Child's Success in School

Father of lights and of all true wisdom, I humbly recommend to you my child in the pursuit of learning. Mercifully grant the measure of success that will be good for him/her to achieve. And thus may there be a genuine sense of fulfillment as a result of efforts made. May all knowledge attained be tempered by humility. Grant that my child's endeavors may be guided by a sense of solid values, and help me to instill these values. And so may all his/her striving for knowledge be made, not with the aim of surpassing others or of making vain show of ability, but rather as a worthy return to you of the talents that you have bestowed. And above all else, I ask that every degree of knowledge achieved may bring my child to a greater closeness to you and to a more abundant share of your love. Amen.

THE SUNDAY FUNNIES

A string walks into a bar and asks the bartender for a beer. Bartender says "We don't serve strings here." and throws him out. The string goes outside and asks a man on the street, "Would you please tie me into a knot and fray my ends a little?" The man assists. String goes back to the bar, asks the bartender for a beer. The bartender says "Hey, weren't you just in here?" The string says "No, I'm a frayed knot."
