GOSPEL MEDITATION:

MT 16: 21-27

Secular pursuits only bring a temporary amount of satisfaction and fulfillment. As much as we may think that achieving worldly success, economic security, personal well-being, and self-fulfillment are worthy goals to obtain, they all are dependent on external variables and can lead to emptiness. We are trained to be very pragmatic and productive. Unless we are able to check off all of the boxes or comply with specific measurable requirements, our value and worth becomes questionable. Corporations, educational institutions, systems, structures, and secular ideology rarely consider deeper, more spiritual, and human contributions a person can and needs to make.

To the secular mind, the wisdom and ideals of the Gospel are making less and less sense. Consider for a moment this question: "What profit would there be for one to gain the whole world and forfeit his life?" While Jesus is asking this very challenging question to people who are considering his message, many in our world are in a quite different place. Whether we realize it, many folks are asking a much different question. Why would you not want to gain the whole world and secure your life?

If you look at where a lot of folks are investing their time, energy, and resources, it becomes obvious where current priorities rest.

Modern day comforts and possibilities are backing us out of our relationship with God. The fire burning in every human heart is trying to find its satisfaction in the things that humans have created and not God. Being altruistic and offering compassion for those most in need becomes a political responsibility or responsible gesture. We realize that our hearts need to be centered on something and someone who calls us out of ourselves, but we struggle and battle with naming the source of that call. God places the desire to seek, find, and love Him in the core of every soul. We are not abandoned and left to fend for ourselves. But we can easily get confused. We know that when we extend ourselves to another self-sacrificially, we are doing what is just and right. We know that we can work through suffering and loss and come out better and more whole on the other side.

Our minds need to be renewed so that they can begin to understand that there is much more to who we are, and that faith plays a pivotal role in achieving our true and everlasting goals. It is when we see that it is only faith that can bring us to this heightened awareness of ourselves and God that it will begin to make sense. Then, we can put things in proper perspective and consider being a disciple. ©LPi

PARISH NEWS

Help the People of Beirut!

A message from Bishop Michael J. Boulette, D. Min., V.G.,
Auxiliary Bishop of San Antonio:

The people of Beirut, Lebanon are suffering tremendously from the massive explosion that occurred at the port there. More than 200 people were killed, over 5,000 injured, and 300,000 have been made homeless due to the extensive damage. Widespread hunger is now impacting many Lebanese, as the country's economy was already struggling due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

With the recent explosion in Beirut, Lebanon, our brothers and sisters in the Catholic Church there are in great need of financial assistance. If you feel so called, please send a donation directly to St. George Maronite Catholic Church where the pastor, Father Charles Khachan, MLML, will ensure that all money goes directly to the eparchs (bishops) of the country to assist their parishioners most in need. Please make checks payable to St. George Maronite Catholic Church, Aid to Lebanon and mail to the parish at 6070 Babcock Road, San Antonio, Texas, 78240.

Sign up in parish office or email council10090@gmail.com.

*There is NO commitment beyond a daily prayer (no contact, phone calls or gifts). Communication with the officer is optional and limited to a card or note several times a year letting them know you are praying for them.

FAITH & PRAYER

PRAY FOR VOCATIONS!

We invite you and your family to pray for local seminarians and for an increase in vocations to religious life. These seminarians will be the recipients of your prayers this month.

Stephen FitzSimon

Robert Shelton

Lord Jesus, we ask you to send more servants to your people. Choose from our parishes, from our homes, from our schools and colleges, an abundant harvest of apostles for your Kingdom: priests, sisters, brothers, deacons and lay ministers. We pray that those you call may never lose awareness of the dignity and need of their vocation. O Virgin Mary, Mother of the Church, teach to all those the Master calls to say a joyful "yes" as you did at the Annunciation. Amen.

The committee also commends to your intercession this order committed to the consecrated life:

WORDS OF LIFE/PALABRAS DE VIDA

"Every child who, rather than being born, is condemned unjustly to being aborted, bears the face of Jesus Christ, bears the face of the Lord, who even before he was born, and then just after birth, experienced the world's rejection. And every elderly person ... even if he is ill or at the end of his days, bears the face of Christ. They cannot be discarded, as the 'culture of waste' suggests! They cannot be thrown away!"

— Pope Francis, Address to Participants in the Meeting Organized by the International Federation of Catholic Medical Associations, Sept. 20, 2013

"Cada niño no nacido, pero condenado injustamente a ser abortado, tiene el rostro de Jesucristo, tiene el rostro del Señor, que antes aún de nacer, y después recién nacido, experimentó el rechazo del mundo. [...] Y cada anciano, aunque esté enfermo o al final de sus días, lleva en sí el rostro de Cristo. ¡No se pueden descartar, como nos propone la 'cultura del descarte'! ¡No se pueden descartar!"

— Papa Francisco, Discurso a los participantes en la Conferencia organizada por la Federación Internacional de las Asociaciones Médicas Católicas, 20 de septiembre de 2013
