Parish Mission Statement

We, the people of St. Anthony Mary Claret Parish, have as our mission to open our hearts and doors to those from all walks of life so that they too may share in the everlasting presence of God. Together we strive to grow closer to Jesus Christ through the Holy Eucharist. We work to foster the development of the parish, not only to strengthen our own spiritual awareness, but to impact the community as a whole.

GOSPEL MEDITATION:

JN 6:60-69

“Far be it from us to forsake the Lord for the service of other gods.” We struggle with our gods. They appear in the forms of things like money, power, prestige, popularity, privilege, and self-fulfillment. We like these “gods” because they make us feel good and ask very little of us in return. When we worship them, we worship ourselves. How can you go wrong with that? We buy into the illusion that if something can give us a comfortable life, free of want and need, then it is worth setting other things aside to pursue it. In essence, we sell our souls. Our struggle with “who is God” and to whom do we belong is a real one and one that can easily find us empty and experiencing disillusionment.

The devil tempted Jesus in the desert and promised him more. We are promised “more.” But in pursuing the more and the satisfying we lose track of the cost, and the cost is great. We sacrifice our very life in pursuit of something disguised as life. We sacrifice truth for something that only “feels” true. While the true and real God certainly promises us many things, many things are also required. It is not about the warm and secure feelings and self-absorption the world wants to provide, but of giving back. There can be no lukewarm stance with regard to faith. If we are in, then faith in Jesus Christ asks us to do some difficult things: work in service of God’s kingdom (not our own), love our enemies, offer no resistance to injury, that we must die to ourselves in order to find ourselves, and trust that Jesus truly gives us his flesh and blood to eat and drink. These are hard things to accept and even harder to put into practice. It is no wonder that

Sincerely in Christ, Rev. Jan P. Klak

“What does love look like? It has the hands to help others. It has the feet to hasten to the poor and needy. It has eyes to see misery and want. It has the ears to hear the sighs and sorrows of men. That is what love looks like.”

— St. Augustine, feast day: August 28

many, who may be attracted to Jesus at first, walk away in pursuit of the more self-satisfying gods.

But truth is truth. If we cannot accept it from the lips of Jesus Christ, then where else will we find it? To whom can we go? There is only one source of truth and life, Jesus Christ. Jesus has the words of eternal life and if we do not go to him, then where else will we find this gift? But we must be faithful and buy into the whole package deal that requires sacrifice and fidelity. When we do, we find ourselves, through the Body and Blood of Christ, connected to the Source of all life and then intimately bound with our brothers and sisters. We all have to decide whether we want to stay or go and if we can accept what Jesus has to say. It's a choice we all have to make. ©LPi

BAPTISM AND THE DIGNITY OF THE HUMAN PERSON

Conclusion

Baptism makes us disciples to the world.

Incorporation into Christ and into the community of the People of God means agreeing to take part in, and to self-identify with, its mission to become disciples in the world (CCC, no. 1276, and Compendium, no. 541). Pope John Paul II writes, "Because of the one dignity flowing from Baptism," every baptized person "shares a responsibility for the Church's mission" (Christifideles Laici, no. 15). The baptized must work as disciples of Christ by caring for the sick, the oppressed, the debilitated, and the sinners. We are called to carry out this work not only in our local communities, but also in the global community of which we are also members. In this way, we can extend to all the love, compassion, and mercy of God that we ourselves have come to know.

Baptism calls us to live in the world, seeking the Kingdom in our daily lives.

During the blessing of the baptismal waters at the Easter Vigil, we recall God's action within history. We hear, for example, about the liberation of Israel from slavery in Egypt. Christians believe that "Baptism does not take [the baptized] from the world at all." Instead, the world becomes the "place" and "means" for the lay faithful to "fulfill their Christian vocation" (Christifideles Laici, no. 15). We give expression to our baptismal reality "in our daily lives" in "the field" of the world (Pope Benedict XVI, Sacramentum Caritatis [Sacrament of Charity], no. 79). The baptized work within the spheres of "work, culture, science and research; the exercise of social, economic and political responsibilities" to order them to the Kingdom (Compendium, no. 543).

The baptized are called to contribute to the sanctification of the world. Being "present and active in the world" is a "theological and ecclesiological reality" (Compendium, no. 543). This reality is what leads us to work to protect the life and dignity of all people and to care for God's creation here on earth. "The world is not something indifferent, raw material to be utilized simply as we see fit," Pope Benedict XVI, notes. Instead, we see it as "God's creation." Our Baptism helps us see a "profound relationship" between our work here on earth and our future with Christ (Sacramentum Caritatis, no. 92).

The baptized are to live as lights in the darkness.

After being baptized, we acknowledge or receive a white garment to signify that we have risen with Christ. We receive a lighted candle, which symbolizes that we are a new creation, enlightened by Christ. We are now called to carry that light into the dark world to extend the light to others (CCC, no. 1243). The gifts given at Baptism, Pope Benedict XVI writes, are for "the building up of Christ's Body (1 Cor 12) and for ever greater witness to the Gospel in the world" (Sacramentum Caritatis, no. 17).

RESPECT LIFE

The founders of our country declared that each human being has certain inalienable rights that government must protect. It is no accident that they named life before liberty and the pursuit of happiness. Life itself is a basic human good, the condition for enjoying all other goods on this earth. Therefore the right to life is the most basic human right. Other valued rights—the right to vote, to freedom of speech, or to equal protection under law—lose their foundation if life itself can be destroyed with impunity.

~United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, "To Live Each Day with Dignity: A Statement on Physician-Assisted Suicide," June 16, 2011

Los fundadores de nuestra nación, declararon que cada ser humano tiene ciertos derechos inalienables que el gobierno debe proteger. No es una casualidad que ellos mencionaron la vida antes que la libertad y la búsqueda de la felicidad. La vida misma es un bien humano básico, la condición para disfrutar de todos los demás bienes de esta tierra. Por tanto, el derecho a la vida es el derecho humano más básico. Otros derechos valiosos —el derecho al voto, a la libertad de expresión o igual protección bajo la ley— pierden su fundamento si la vida puede ser destruida con impunidad.

~United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, "Vivir dignamente cada día: Declaración acerca del suicidio asistido por un médico", 16 de junio de 2011

FAITH & PRAYER

A Parent's Prayer When Children are Leaving Home

Gracious God, you blessed me with the gift of my child and entrusted me with his/her care. Now he/she leaves this home and begins a new life apart from me. Surround him/her with good people and watch over him/her each day.

And let him/her know that I will always be near whenever he/she may need me. Heal any hurts we may harbor with one another and forgive our failings as we learn to be in a new kind of relationship with each other.

And when the sight of his/her empty room pierces my heart with sadness, may I find comfort in knowing that my child is your child too, filled with your grace and sheltered by your love. Amen.

FAITH & PRAYER

PRAY FOR VOCATIONS!

Pray for our local seminarians and for an increase in vocations to religious life. This month we especially pray for these two seminarians:

Michael Coronado

Diego Castellanos

Padre Nuestro, te damos gracias por llamar a hombres y mujeres a servir en el Reino de tu Hijo como sacerdotes, diáconos y personas consagradas. Manda tu Santo Espíritu para ayudar a que otros respondan con generosidad y valentía a tu llamado. Que nuestra comunidad de fe apoye las vocaciones de amor sacrificial en nuestros jóvenes y jóvenes adultos. Por nuestro Señor Jesucristo quien vive y reina contigo en la unidad del Espíritu Santo, un solo Dios, por los siglos de los siglos. Amen.

We also commend to your intercession this order committed to the consecrated life:

Order of St. Augustine (Augustinians)
