Parish Mission Statement

We, the people of St. Anthony Mary Claret Parish, have as our mission to open our hearts and doors to those from all walks of life so that they too may share in the everlasting presence of God. Together we strive to grow closer to Jesus Christ through the Holy Eucharist. We work to foster the development of the parish, not only to strengthen our own spiritual awareness, but to impact the community as a whole.

GOSPEL MEDITATION:

LK 13:22-30

The serious disciple knows the necessity and value of discipline. Thinking of discipline as something punitive in nature, we underscore its place in our spiritual lives. Discipline is really about a radical trust in God and his guidance. "When you are conducted by a guide who takes you through an unknown country at night across fields where there are no tracks, by his own skill, asking no advice from anyone, giving no inkling of his plans, what choice do you have but to give yourself completely to his guidance? If you are convinced that he is a good guide, you must have faith in him and abandon yourself to his care" (Jean-Pierre de Caussade).

If someone wants to be physically fit, they readily find a competent trainer who sets them on a rigorous schedule. Determined to reach their goals, they sacrifice personal pleasure and trust in his guidance. Why should it be any different with God? In order to remain true to the way Jesus places before us, we have to listen, learn, and be willing to change. Falling in love with God and maintaining that relationship requires an investment of time, energy, and hard work. Putting personal preferences aside in pursuit of the Gospel and giving proper attention to our spiritual lives is challenging work. At first, "all discipline seems a cause not for joy but for pain, yet later it brings the peaceful fruit of righteousness to those who are trained by it" (Hebrews).

"What God does is essentially good. It does not need to be reformed or controlled. . . If you would live according to the Gospels, give yourself completely and simply to the action of God (Jean-Pierre de Caussade)." Submission to the holy will of God is not a submission to a set of pre-ordained set of circumstances. Rather, it is an abandonment and trust in God's creative, life-giving, and salvific power. God brings light out of darkness and life out of death. Nurturing this bond of trust and seeking God in all things creates an intimate and particular relationship and bond between our Creator and us. When He comes, there will be no issue with us recognizing Him or Him recognizing us. We will have met before.

RESPECT LIFE

Catholic Considerations for Our Earthly Passing

Read the full version at respectlifeprogram.org/end-of-life-considerations.

We prepare for eternal life by choosing to love and follow God. Our journey with Christ includes equipping our consciences to make morally good judgments at the end of life. While no summary can substitute for thorough catechesis, one thing is clear: we are entrusted by God with the gift of life. This obliges us to make use of appropriate, effective medical care. The Church affirms the inviolable dignity of every person, regardless of the duration or extent of the person's incapacity. Nothing diminishes the sanctity of a person's life, or the obligation to protect and care for it. Those who are sick should not be alone, and, even after death, accompaniment continues by praying for those who have passed.

We are entrusted by God with the gift of life.

This is a summary of a USCCB Respect Life Program article by the same name and is reprinted with permission. © 2019, USCCB, Washington, D.C. All rights reserved.

Intercessions for Life

For those who are gravely ill or dying: may our Blessed Mother ease their pain and fears, and by her glorious Assumption, console them with the hope of eternal life. We pray to the Lord.

Intercesiones por la Vida

Por quienes están graves o por morir: que nuestra Santísima Madre alivie su dolor y sus temores, y que por su Asunción gloriosa, los consuele con la esperanza de la vida eterna. Roguemos al Señor.

Make a Spiritual Adoption Pledge!
Stop by the Respect Life Ministry table in the narthex to fill out your card and learn more about the beauty of praying for life from conception to birth.

Spiritual Adoption Pledge

Jesus, Mary and Joseph, I love you very much; I beg you to protect the unborn baby that I have spiritually adopted.

Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen

I, _____, promise to spiritually adopt and pray daily for

Baby's name

until its or her birthday (9 mos from today).

What is spiritual adoption?

Adoption is an act of great love filled with blessings and joy. It is also an act of great sacrifice. Throughout the spiritual adoption you sacrifice time spent in prayer for a child yet to draw its first breath, a mother who has yet to say yes, and a family that has yet to be formed. You are praying for life. During the 40 weeks, updates developmental milestones will be posted in the bulletin and at the respect life ministry table. At the end of this "pregnancy" a baby shower of celebration will be held. All gifts collected will be donated to The Gabriel Project.

THE SUNDAY FUNNIES

Little Johnny and his family were having Sunday dinner at his grandma's house. Everyone was around the table and when he received his plate, he started eating right away. "Johnny, please wait until we say our prayer," said his mother.

"I don't need to," the boy replied.
"Of course, you do," his mother insisted.
"We always say a prayer before eating at our house."

"That's at our house," Johnny explained, "but this is Grandma's house and she knows how to cook!"

FAITH & PRAYER

PRAY FOR VOCATIONS!

Pray for our local seminarians and for an increase in vocations to religious life. This month we especially pray for these two seminarians:

Javier Alvarado

Luis Horacio Gómez

God our Father, thank you for calling these men to prepare for the priesthood. Grant them the grace to grow closer to you through daily prayer. Help them form their personalities as credible witnesses to others. Bless them while they study Your word and the teachings of the Church and give them generous hearts to serve Your people. We ask this through Your Son, Jesus Christ, our great High Priest. Amen.

We also commend to your intercession this order committed to the consecrated life:
Order of Friars Minor Conventual
