Parish Mission Statement

We, the people of St. Anthony Mary Claret Parish, have as our mission to open our hearts and doors to those from all walks of life so that they too may share in the everlasting presence of God. Together we strive to grow closer to Jesus Christ through the Holy Eucharist. We work to foster the development of the parish, not only to strengthen our own spiritual awareness, but to impact the community as a whole.

GOSPEL MEDITATION: MT 1:18-24

A seminary professor of mine once said, “Don’t confuse enthusiasm for a virtue with the virtue itself.” How easy it’s been in my life as a priest to talk about the greatest of virtues — love — and totally fail to live up to its concrete demands!

Fortunately, our religion is not mainly about ideas or virtues but about persons. The angel of the Lord says to Joseph, “Do not be afraid to take Mary as your wife, for the child conceived in her is from the Holy Spirit” (Mt.1:20). We don’t know exactly why Joseph was scared to receive Mary and therefore Jesus. We do know the solution: take Mary home. It’s so concrete. Look at her. Listen to her. Talk to her. Protect her. Help her. Laugh with her. Eat with her. Rest with her. Christianity begins here for Joseph, so it must with us, too.

This week I challenge you to choose a concrete way to “take Mary into your home.” Praying a weekly or daily Rosary is a proven way. Perhaps for you it’s making a little shrine with a statue or image. Maybe it’s praying a weekly Litany of Our Lady on Saturday night. Whatever it is, make sure it is a concrete action and do it. She will be there. Soon her virtues will follow, especially love.

— Father John Muir ©LPi

RESPECT LIFE

Word of Life

“Jesus calls each of us to ‘care for the other as a person for whom God has made us responsible’ (EV 87*). ...The encyclical The Gospel of Life recognizes the full range of threats against human life, from poverty and malnutrition to murder and war. Particular emphasis, however, is placed on threats to life at its beginning and end—precisely when it is most in need of protection. In modern times, children in their mothers’ wombs and those approaching the end of their lives are certainly among the ‘least of these’ in our world’s estimation.”

Palabra De Vida

"Jesús nos llama a cada uno de nosotros a ‘hacernos cargo del otro como persona confiada por Dios a nuestra responsabilidad’ (EV 87*) ... La encíclica El Evangelio de Vida reconoce la gama completa de amenazas contra la vida humana, tales como la pobreza y desnutrición hasta el asesinato y la guerra. Hace énfasis particular, in embargo, en las amenazas a la vida al principio y al final—precisamente cuándo más necesita protección. En tiempos modernos, niños en el vientre materno y aquellos que se acercan al fin de sus vidas están ciertamente entre los ‘menores de estos’ en la valoración que les da nuestro mundo.”

Intercessions for Life

For all parents awaiting the birth of their child:
may they look to the Blessed Mother and Saint Joseph and follow their example of cherishing and protecting human life. We pray to the Lord.

Intercesiones por la Vida

Por todos los padres que esperan el nacimiento de sus hijos:
que miren hacia la Santísima Madre y San José
y sigan su ejemplo de atesorar y proteger la vida humana.
Roguemos al Señor.

Dear St. Joseph,
help us to imitate your faithful trust and courage.

PRAYER & ACTION: FOR THOSE STRUGGLING WITH INFERTILITY

Pray

Our Father, 3 Hail Marys, Glory Be

Reflect

We can often assume that parenthood comes easily after “I do,” but for many married couples, it does not. For some, the joy of conception never happens. Others suffer repeated miscarriages. Still others experience secondary infertility: after giving birth to one or more children, they are unable to have another. Infertility can be a profound cross for couples desiring a child, and their suffering can become overwhelming. Social media posts of pregnancies, baby announcements, or attending baby showers may intensify the sense of being alone in their ache for a child. The pursuit of ethical medical treatments in hopes of conceiving can be physically and emotionally taxing and increase feelings of isolation. However, it is estimated that as many as 1 in 6 couples will struggle with infertility, meaning that you or someone you know is likely bearing this cross, often silently or without support.

May couples struggling with infertility experience Christ's closeness in their suffering and receive the grace to trust in His perfect will.

We can all find hope in the truth that God does not abandon us in our suffering, even when we don't understand His will. The Church desires to walk with all those who bear the burden of infertility. Pope St. John Paul II clearly affirmed that couples who are unable to have children are “no less loved by God; your love for each other is complete and fruitful when it is open to others.” It is important that all couples who experience infertility—and those who desire to offer them support—know that their love is still fruitful and their married life remains filled with meaning. We pray that couples struggling with infertility would know Christ's closeness in a special way and be confident in His perfect will for their marriage and family. May we strive to be channels of mercy to all who carry the cross of infertility through our own awareness, sensitivity, and support.

Reflection adapted from “Seven Considerations While Navigating Infertility” which can be found at <https://www.respectlife.org/navigating-infertility>.

Act (Choose one.)

- Pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet for all couples who carry the cross of infertility.
- Choose one day this week to abstain from sweets or your favorite snack as a reminder to draw close to Christ in times of suffering and trust in His plan for our lives.
- Offer some other sacrifice or prayer that you feel called to do for this month's intention.

One Step Further

THE SUNDAY FUNNIES

Come,
LORD JESUS!

It was just before Christmas and the magistrate was in a happy mood. He asked the prisoner who was in the dock, “What are you charged with?”

The prisoner replied, “Doing my Christmas shopping too early.”

“That's no crime,” said the magistrate. “Just how early were you doing this shopping?”

“Before the shop opened,” answered the prisoner.

FAITH & PRAYER

PRAY FOR VOCATIONS!

Pray for our local seminarians and for an increase in vocations to religious life. This month we especially pray for these two seminarians:

Robert Shelton*Joseph Duque*St. John Vianney's Prayer for Priests

God, please give to your Church today many more priests after your own heart. May they be worthy representatives of Christ the Good Shepherd. May they wholeheartedly devote themselves to prayer and penance; be examples of humility and poverty; shining models of holiness; tireless and powerful preachers of the Word of God; zealous dispensers of your grace in the sacraments. May their loving devotion to your Son Jesus in the Eucharist and to Mary his Mother be the twin fountains of fruitfulness for their ministry. Amen.

We also commend to your intercession this order committed to the consecrated life: Congregation of the Congregation of Maronite Lebanese Missionaries

ADVENT PRAYER TO BE LIKE MARY

Blessed Mother, Mary, as we reflect on your yes to bring the Savior into the world, we ask that you be with us as we strive to bring Jesus to all those we encounter.

In this season of joyful hope, we turn to you for guidance. May we imitate your loving example, and steadfastly bring peace and justice to our world.

When we are tempted to distance ourselves from another, give us the grace to say yes to charity.

When we are frustrated, let us listen with our hearts to our neighbors.

When we are disappointed, help us seek new solutions as you did when the inn was full.

Let us embrace our own need for poverty and humility in order to work toward creative solutions for our world as we await the coming of Christ. Amen.
