GOSPEL MEDITATION: MT 25:1-13

Lately I've been enjoying the deep meaning of Eastern icons. I love how they express a tapestry of meaning in a way that can surpass the written or spoken word. Today's parable of the ten virgins from Jesus is a good example. Try googling "wise and foolish virgins icon" and you'll see an image of how our Christ meets our heart's deepest needs if we attend to him with the proper attitude.

I'm serious. Take a moment to google and look at it. See how it depicts the risen Jesus behind a closed door with the five wise virgins with lighted lamps. He gazes with them toward the five foolish and lamp-less virgins, symbolizing the outward looking of divine love for the lost. Moreover, the wedding feast is no ordinary one. It takes place in a walled city and garden, indicating it's a new Jerusalem and a return to Eden. The table isn't typical, either. It's a Eucharistic feast. Now we see that the door in Jesus' parable is the way into the church, where Christ is the new light burning amidst the dark midnight of this world.

The richness continues. We notice, too, that the foolish virgins look exactly the same as the wise ones in their clothes, hair, and expressions. The only difference is they departed to buy oil and now they are sadly excluded. We often act like consumers in the marketplace to fulfill our need for love and mercy. We'll always end up disappointed if we shop around. Jesus sums up the moral of the story this way: "Watch therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour." Watch, remain, don't spiritually shop. It is always better to quietly remain close to the Eucharistic community of the Church, even if we feel like our oil has run out. This week let's consider placing the icon of the wise and foolish virgins on our phone lock screen or computer desktop to help us remember to stay close to him, especially when life feels dark.

THE LITANY OF HUMILITY

O Jesus, meek and humble of heart, hear me.
 From the desire of being esteemed, deliver me, O Jesus.
 From the desire of being loved, deliver me, O Jesus.
 From the desire of being extolled, deliver me, O Jesus.
 From the desire of being honored, deliver me, O Jesus.
 From the desire of being praised, deliver me, O Jesus.
 From the desire of being preferred to others, deliver me, O Jesus.
 From the desire of being consulted, deliver me, O Jesus.
 From the desire of being approved, deliver me, O Jesus.
 From the fear of being humiliated, deliver me, O Jesus.
 From the fear of being despised, deliver me, O Jesus.
 From the fear of suffering rebukes, deliver me, O Jesus.
 From the fear of being calumniated, deliver me, O Jesus.
 From the fear of being forgotten, deliver me, O Jesus.
 From the fear of being ridiculed, deliver me, O Jesus.
 From the fear of being wronged, deliver me, O Jesus.
 From the fear of being suspected, deliver me, O Jesus.
 That others may be loved more than I, Jesus, grant me the grace to desire it.
 That others may be esteemed more than I, Jesus, grant me the grace to desire it.
 That, in the opinion of the world, others may increase and I may decrease,
 Jesus, grant me the grace to desire it.
 That others may be chosen and I set aside, Jesus, grant me the grace to desire it.
 That others may be praised and I go unnoticed, Jesus, grant me the grace to desire it.
 That others may be preferred to me in everything, Jesus, grant me the grace to desire it.
 That others may become holier than I, provided that I may become as holy as I should,
 Jesus, grant me the grace to desire it

Author: Rafael Cardinal Merry del Val y Zulueta, Secretary of State to Pope Saint Pius X (1903-1914)
Source: EWTN.com

Who was Rafael Cardinal Merry del Val y Zulueta?

In 1903, the dean of the College of Cardinals died at almost the same time as Pope Leo XIII. In the quest to hurry and get someone to coordinate the papal election, Merry del Val was chosen. He had only been a bishop for three years.

After four days and on the seventh ballot, a relatively unknown cardinal from Venice was elected: Guiseppe Cardinal Sarto. He took the name Pope Pius X. He and Bishop Merry del Val, two total opposites, became fast friends.

After two months Bishop del Val was elevated to cardinal, the first red hat given by Pius X. "The good odor of Christ, lord cardinal, that you have spread in every place, even in your temporary dwelling, and the many works of charity to which you have dedicated yourself constantly in your priestly ministry, especially in this our city of Rome, have won for you, with admiration, universal esteem," the pope told him. Shortly thereafter, he was made the pope's secretary of state.

Pope Pius X passed away on August 20, 1914. Cardinal Merry del Val continued to serve the Church until his own death in 1930.

Despite this service of the pope and the Vatican, Cardinal Merry del Val is best known for the Litany of Humility. Many (including C.S. Lewis) say he is the one who actually wrote it. It is known that he said it every day after he celebrated Mass.

Servant of God, Cardinal Merry del Val, please pray for us.

FAITH & PRAYER

PRAY FOR VOCATIONS!

Pray for our local seminarians and for an increase in vocations to religious life. This month we especially pray for these two seminarians.

Dustin Martin*Ryan Lutz

Loving and gracious God, your son Jesus reminded us: "To love one another as I have loved you" (John 15:12). May we never forget Jesus' words in all that we do.

We pray for an increase of vocations to the priesthood, diaconate and consecrated life in the Archdiocese of San Antonio. Give us the gifts of the Holy Spirit so we can serve you more faithfully in our own vocations of married, single, religious or priestly life. Help us to support one another in our vocations and to work together to build up your kingdom here on earth. Amen.

We also commend to your intercession this order committed to the consecrated life:
