GOSPEL MEDITATION: JN 3:14-21

Our national pastime isn't baseball. It's what the Bible calls "condemning the world." We generally enjoy pronouncing curses upon those whom we see as trouble, wrong, or evil. Don't believe me? Listen to almost any podcast, cable news network, or social media platform to hear it. It will be some version of: "We all agree that if they are eradicated, things will be great." Condemning is almost always clothed in virtue. It basks in its good intentions. That's why it is so attractive. Condemning seems like our best path to saving what is good.

What a shock, then, to hear Jesus announce: "For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him" (Jn 3:17). He comes to save the world, as we all want, but he will accomplish it without an act of condemnation. How hard it is to accept this! Condemning feels godlike. I judge who and what must be lost to protect the good. But in the light of Jesus' endless mercy and love, this is the least godlike thing we can do.

Lenten challenge: This week, I invite you to give up the delicious experience of condemning whomever in the world you most would like to see gone. Perhaps write down their names. Secondly, I invite you to consider fasting from any media that feeds the tasty but deadly tendency to condemn.

— Father John Muir ©LPi

A SPECIAL INVITATION FROM OUR PASTOR

Next to the Blessed Mother, St. Joseph, being directly elected by God the Father, is the greatest example of faithful service to Jesus. In humble obedience to God, St. Joseph protected Mary and Jesus under the most difficult circumstances.

Although he says not a word in Scripture, the "silent" Joseph speaks volumes through his faithful actions. He is a patron of all husbands, fathers, and young people.

On March 19, we will celebrate the Solemnity of St. Joseph.

I would like to invite all members of our parish to pray a novena to St. Joseph beginning March 10. Copies of the novena will be distributed on March 9/10 after all Masses.

I invite all members of our parish to come celebrate this Solemn Mass on Tuesday, March 19 at 7 PM.

During the Holy Mass we will consecrate all members of our parish asking St. Joseph for the protection of our families in these difficult times.

THE SUNDAY FUNNIES

During Lent, a devout Catholic wanders through heavy rain into Mount Angel's monastery asking for shelter. He arrived in time for dinner and received the finest fish and chips he'd ever tasted.

After supper, he goes to the kitchen to thank the chefs. "Hi, my name is Brother Michael, and this is Brother Francis," says a monk.

"Delighted to meet you. I just wanted to say thank you for a delicious dinner. It was the finest fish and chips I've ever had. Who cooked what, just out of curiosity?"

Brother Michael replies, "Well, I'm the fish friar."

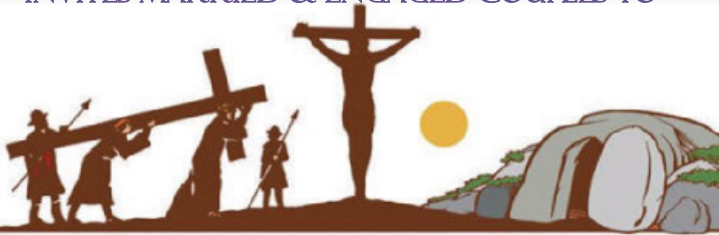

The man turns to the other brother and says, "Then you must be . . ."

"Yes, I'm afraid I'm the chip monk."

PRAY FOR VOCATIONS!

Pray for our local seminarians and for an increase in vocations to religious life. This month we especially pray for these two seminarians.

Den. Ottmar Tovar*Den. Rafael Becerra

God our Father, thank you for calling these men to prepare for the priesthood. Grant them the grace to grow closer to you through daily prayer. Help them form their personalities as credible witnesses to others. Bless them while they study Your word and the teachings of the Church and give them generous hearts to serve Your people. We ask this through Your Son, Jesus Christ, our great High Priest. Amen.

We also commend to your intercession this order committed to the consecrated life:
