Parish Mission Statement

We, the people of St. Anthony Mary Claret Parish, have as our mission to open our hearts and doors to those from all walks of life so that they too may share in the everlasting presence of God. Together we strive to grow closer to Jesus Christ through the Holy Eucharist. We work to foster the development of the parish, not only to strengthen our own spiritual awareness, but to impact the community as a whole.

GOSPEL MEDITATION: MK 6:7-13

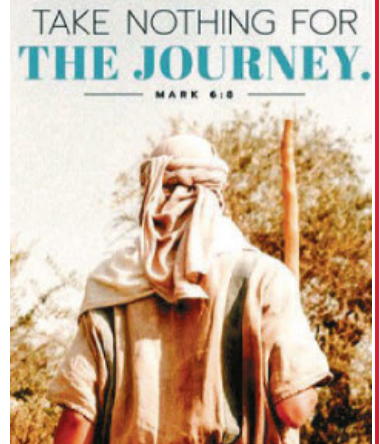

Once I asked a fallen-away Catholic friend of mine what he remembered about the parish priest from his youth. He said, "He was a gentle, nice guy. Kind of vanilla. Kept to himself." It struck me that he, perhaps like many, perceive Catholic priests as the following: lonely, harmless, and self-sufficient. As a challenge both to this perception (accurate or not) and to us priests who perhaps feel a pull in that uninspiring direction, stands the mighty image of what we see in the Gospel this Sunday.

Jesus sent out his apostles, "two-by-two, with power over demons, and without money belts."

Two-by-two: they enjoyed deep fellowship and brotherhood. Power over demons: they were anything but harmless. These men wielded enormous power against evil. Without money belts: they were not self-sufficient. They needed others to help them. Not lonely, but in community. Not harmless but armed with massive spiritual energy. Not self-sufficient, but poor and in need of help.

This is a challenge to me, and perhaps to all of us, living in a rich, secularized, and individualized culture. Do I embrace my priestly ministry in deep fellowship with other priests? Do I speak and act boldly to drive out evil where it is found? Do I live poorly and simply, trusting in the help of those around me even for basic needs? The fruitfulness of priestly ministry largely depends on these three traits. Let's pray for all priests — and, by extension, all of us Christians — to live more like Jesus' communal, poor, and powerful apostles.

— Father John Muir ©LPi

Bishop Chairmen Oppose Right to IVF Act, Urge Support for Restorative Reproductive Medicine

Ahead of the Senate’s consideration of the "Right to IVF Act" (S.4445, read it here: Text - S.4445 - 118th Congress (2023-2024): Right to IVF Act | Congress.gov | Library of Congress), three USCCB committee chairmen conveyed their concerns, urging members to oppose the measure.

Bishop Robert E. Barron, chairman of the Committee on Laity, Marriage, Family Life, and Youth, Bishop Michael F. Burbidge, chairman of the Committee on Pro-Life Activities, and Bishop Kevin C. Rhoades, chairman of the Committee for Religious Liberty stated:

“The Right to IVF Act...would manufacture a new federal right and problematic health insurance mandate to support the underregulated and lucrative IVF industry – which kills and freezes countless embryonic human beings, our brothers and sisters, often in a eugenic manner; commodifies children, donors, and surrogates; and can even produce worse health outcomes for women and children. Further, it would steamroll protective state laws that stand in its way, and include definitions of ‘fertility treatment’ and ‘assisted reproductive technology’ that, beyond IVF, could include cloning, even of deceased persons. This legislation must be opposed.”

As an alternative, the bishops expressed appreciation for the RESTORE (Reproductive Empowerment and Support through Optimal Restoration) Act, which builds support for authentically restorative reproductive medicine.

THE SUNDAY FUNNIES

“What is a confectioner’s favorite feast?”

Our Lady of Mount Carmel is a special Marian devotion for many people, and Carmelites in particular. Carmelites bless the Church with their dedication to prayer, community, and service.

FAITH & PRAYER

PRAY FOR VOCATIONS!

Pray for an increase in vocations to religious life. This month we especially pray for these two local seminarians.

Guillermo Cruz Hernández

Moses Castro

Loving and gracious God, your son Jesus reminded us: "To love one another as I have loved you" (John 15:12).

May we never forget Jesus' words in all that we do.

We pray for an increase of vocations to the priesthood, diaconate and consecrated life in the Archdiocese of San Antonio. Give us the gifts of the Holy Spirit so we can serve you more faithfully in our own vocations of married, single, religious or priestly life. Help us to support one another in our vocations and to work together to build up your kingdom here on earth. Amen.

We also commend to your intercession this order committed to the consecrated life: Daughters of the Holy Spirit

OUR LADY OF MOUNT CARMEL

The origins of this feast reach all the way back to the Old Testament.

In the book of Kings, we read the story of the prophet Elijah. Much of his prayer, fasting, and public ministry occurred from Carmel, a mountain in Israel. Christian hermits -- seeking solitude -- made their homes on the mountain during the first millennium.

Over time, the hermits assembled into a community and were given a Rule of Life.

They named their church after Mary -- Our Lady of Mount Carmel. Political upheaval forced the Carmelite order out of the Holy Land and into Europe, where they established monasteries for both men and women across the continent. Many great saints and doctors of the Church have come from the Carmelite order, including St. Teresa of Avila, St. John of the Cross, St. Therese of Lisieux, and St. Edith Stein. Our Lady of Mount Carmel. Pray for us!
