Parish Mission Statement

We, the people of St. Anthony Mary Claret Parish, have as our mission to open our hearts and doors to those from all walks of life so that they too may share in the everlasting presence of God. Together we strive to grow closer to Jesus Christ through the Holy Eucharist. We work to foster the development of the parish, not only to strengthen our own spiritual awareness, but to impact the community as a whole.

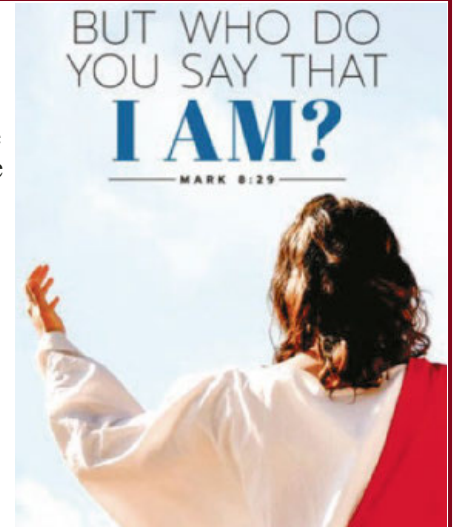

GOSPEL MEDITATION: MK 8:27-35

This morning I received a text message that a member of my extended family will likely die of cancer within the next few hours. His name is Luke. He is a 45-year-old husband and father of six. Though I am not as close to him as my sister (she is his sister-in-law and knows him well), I wonder: how can we, including Luke himself, manage such a terribly awful and unfair situation?

The words of this Sunday's Gospel offer a powerful and challenging path. Jesus says, "If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me" (Mark 8:34). Today I see with new freshness the starkness and strangeness of the words take up. The cross stands for suffering which is unjust, absurd, seemingly hopeless, and humiliating. Jesus doesn't say "accept" or "endure" or "tolerate," but "take up." Embrace it, actively. Choose it and lift it up for others to see what terrifies and sickens us. But somehow, for Jesus, this is the path to "saving one's life." A new world is breaking in, one in which love is everything, when no relationship can be wounded or die. I trust that in the embraced suffering of Luke and his loved ones, Jesus is taking up his cross and saving us all.

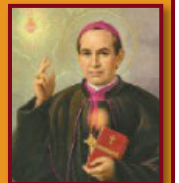

By the time you read this, barring a miracle, Luke will have died. He will be carrying his cross no longer. But we all still face suffering. This week let's not just endure, but take up our crosses, big and small. That's our only hope for saving our lives.

CATECHETICAL SUNDAY: SEPTEMBER 15

Lord, when did we see you hungry

MATTHEW 25:37

“FINDING CHRIST”

by Paul Jarzembowski,
Associate Director, USCCB,
Laity, Marriage, Family Life, and Youth

The third Sunday in September is set aside for acknowledging the importance of catechists in the Church's teaching ministry. Learn more about Catechetical Sunday at www.usccb.org/committees/evangelization-catechesis.

The following article lists ways in which each of us is called to share Christ with others.

When Jesus invites us to look to the margins to see him more clearly (cf. Mt 25), we naturally ask the question: “What margins?” These are the places in our peripheral vision in life, the locations where we often forget to look and that lie just outside our regular field of view. More importantly, we can find ourselves forgetting about the people who occupy those oft-forgotten spaces.

It can be easy to find Christ reflected in the familiar and the explicitly sacred. Yet for young adults, now is an opportune time in life to practice finding Christ in the margins: in the faces of the people who live and breathe and move just beyond or outside our regular routines.

What follows is a discernment tool that offers some initial questions that can lead a person to discover their own peripheries and the people they may overlook or take for granted.

- What does your normal daily or weekly routine look like? It may be helpful to write it out.
- Where do you travel on a normal basis (by foot, by car, by public transportation, etc.)? What neighborhoods, communities, or locations do you pass by throughout your day?
- Who are the people you encounter regularly? Family? Friends? Colleagues or co-workers?
- With these questions in mind, can you then identify the places you visit along the way, but do not stay too long (i.e., the gas station, the grocery store, the coffee shop, etc.)? Can you picture in your mind the individuals you meet in those spaces, but who you do not engage with for more than a few minutes at most? Bring them to mind in a prayer of thanksgiving.
- Within those marginal spaces, who do you envision might be similar to the groups Jesus mentions in his parable of the end times (Mt 25)?
 - Who are those who go hungry? Who has no shelter or are likely one paycheck away from eviction? Who are those who are suffering from physical or mental health issues? Who may struggle with crime and incarceration? Who are those of advanced age: the elderly, the infirm, the grandparents, or those facing terminal illness?
- Who do you think about during the regular giving seasons and holidays (such as Thanksgiving or Christmas) but don't think about in the other months of the year?
- Take time to reflect on the people who you encounter in work or school who you pass by, perhaps only going as far as offering a quick “hello” or wave of the hand. Who do you see frequently but barely know their names? Again, bring them to mind with prayerful gratitude.

As you work through these discernment questions, you may be able to find Christ hidden in peripheral areas, and in so doing, allow the Lord to engage you in the margins of your life.

FAITH & PRAYER

PRAY FOR VOCATIONS!

Pray for an increase in vocations to religious life. This month we especially pray for these two local seminarians.

Dcn. Evan Wittig

Dustin Martin

O loving Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of Priests, take to your heart your sons who are close to you because of their priestly ordinations, and because of the power which they have received to carry on the work of Christ in a world which needs them so much. Be their comfort, joy and strength, and especially help them to live and to defend the ideals of consecrated celibacy. Amen.

We also commend to your intercession this order committed to the consecrated life: Congregation of Divine Providence
