Parish Mission Statement

We, the people of St. Anthony Mary Claret Parish, have as our mission to open our hearts and doors to those from all walks of life so that they too may share in the everlasting presence of God. Together we strive to grow closer to Jesus Christ through the Holy Eucharist. We work to foster the development of the parish, not only to strengthen our own spiritual awareness, but to impact the community as a whole.

everything in it are finally his. Knowing that he knows and loves us should make us also feel a deep peace at being a part of his universe. This leads us to want his kingdom to flourish, to play some responsible role in it.

We advance his kingdom by promoting the truth. "Everyone who is of the truth hears my voice," Christ the King proclaims. In Phil's store, it was about the truth of athletics. In our world, it's all about the truth of all creation, especially the dignity of the human person, made by and for our loving God. Let's rejoice that we know the true king and commit to the flourishing of his kingdom.

GOSPEL MEDITATION: JN 18:33b-37

When I was a young boy in Burlington, Vermont, my dad had a good friend named Phil who owned a sporting goods store. I loved sports, so meandering the treasure-filled aisles was an unmitigated joy. One afternoon, we were shopping for a baseball glove. Dad said to me, "Hey Johnny, see that man who just walked into the store? That's Phil." I remember being fascinated and a little terrified. I recall thinking, "That man right there is in charge of everything in this store!" He reigned over every ball, sneaker, jersey, and sweatsuit. Phil became a family friend. And he was a good owner. The store flourished, and I found myself even more at peace every time I went there. I felt a new hope and even responsibility for the store to flourish.

To say that Christ is the King of the Universe means that Jesus has absolute authority over everything in it. It should fill us with awe and fascination. He is in charge. The world and

RESPECT LIFE: PRAYER & ACTION

PRAY: Our Father, 3 Hail Marys, Glory Be

REFLECT:

As the Church, we recognize that suicide is a tragedy that ends one life and devastates the loved ones left behind. Those who promote physician-assisted suicide try to draw a distinction between those with a mental illness who want to end their lives and those with a terminal illness who express the same wish. This is a dangerously false distinction with far-reaching consequences.

Assisted suicide abandons vulnerable individuals at the moment when they are most in need of our love, care, and support.

Even among terminally ill patients, a request to die is nearly always a cry for help, indicating that some aspect of their condition has not been adequately attended to. Those requesting to end their lives typically do not want to die; they want to escape what they perceive to be an intolerable situation, and they tragically believe that suicide is their only way out. The patient requesting assisted suicide is often asking, "Does anyone want me to be alive, or care enough to talk me out of this request and support me through this difficult time?"

Society's acceptance of assisted suicide sends the false message that under especially difficult circumstances some lives are not worth living. Every suicide is tragic, no matter the circumstances. Nothing diminishes the sanctity of a person's life, or the obligation to protect and care for it. We don't discourage suicide in our society by assisting suicide. We are called to affirm the dignity of human life in all stages and circumstances. Those who are suffering need to be assured of the goodness and value of their lives and provided with authentic care and support.

Reflection adapted from "Every Suicide is Tragic."

ACT (Choose one.):

- Offer the prayer, "Every Life is Worth Living" (www.usccb.org/every-life-worth-living) for this month's intention.
- Do an act of kindness for someone today.
- Offer some other sacrifice or prayer that you feel called to do for this month's intention.

ONE STEP FURTHER: Learn more about the stark differences between assisted suicide and authentic end-of-life care in accord with human dignity in "Killing the Pain, Not the Patient: Palliative Care vs. Assisted Suicide" at www.usccb.org/prolife/killing-pain-not-patient-palliative-care-vs-assisted-suicide.

USCCB | 3211 Fourth Street NE | Washington, DC 20017-1194 US

May those who are sick and suffering be assured of the goodness and value of their lives.

THE SUNDAY FUNNIES

If the Pilgrims were alive today, what would they be most famous for? Their age.

Why do turkeys always go, “gobble, gobble”? Because they never learned good table manners.

How does a Turkey drink her wine?
In a gobble-let.

If April showers bring May flowers, what do May flowers bring? Pilgrims!

WANTED: CLEANING ANGELS

Ever wonder who keeps our church looking lovely and clean?

They are parish volunteers known as the “Cleaning Angels”! Join these wonderful helpers on Wednesdays immediately following the 8 AM Mass. They only tend to the sanctuary and narthex. NO SWEEPING, MOPPING OR RESTROOM CLEANING. No need to call; just show up!

WARNING: Some parishioners have recently received emails requesting help or donations and falsely claiming to be from Fr. Jan or our deacons.

Pray for an increase in vocations to religious life. This month we especially pray for these two local seminarians.

Emmanuel Velasquez

Jesus Sanchez

God, please give to your Church today many more priests after your own heart. May they be worthy representatives of Christ the Good Shepherd. May they wholeheartedly devote themselves to prayer and penance; be examples of humility and poverty; shining models of holiness; tireless and powerful preachers of the Word of God; zealous dispensers of your grace in the sacraments. May their loving devotion to your Son Jesus in the Eucharist and to Mary his Mother be the twin fountains of fruitfulness for their ministry. Amen.
(by St. John Vianney)

We also commend to your intercession this order committed to the consecrated life:
Order of the Incarnate Word & Blessed Sacrament

Traditional Catholic Thanksgiving Prayer

Good and gracious God, we give You thanks today, as we do all days, first and foremost for the gift of creation and the gift of life.

We ask You to bless this food, that it may nourish us and sustain us, and strengthen our ability to do Your will. We pray in thanksgiving for all the hands involved in bringing it to our table.

You tell us, Lord, that to whom much is given, much is expected.

May this meal and the fellowship we enjoy not only serve as clear reminders of Your love of us, but of Your call for us to share Your love and to serve our brothers and sisters, especially those most in need.

We ask this as we ask all things, through Christ, our Lord. Amen.
