Parish Mission Statement

We, the people of St. Anthony Mary Claret Parish, have as our mission to open our hearts and doors to those from all walks of life so that they too may share in the everlasting presence of God. Together we strive to grow closer to Jesus Christ through the Holy Eucharist. We work to foster the development of the parish, not only to strengthen our own spiritual awareness, but to impact the community as a whole.

the resistance vanished, and I found myself able to speak, and claim as my own, those marvelous words. I emerged from the chapel with a new, deep, peaceful conviction that I was indeed God's beloved son.

Those words are a precious gift from heaven to all of us. Jesus' baptism, which we celebrate this week, offers them to us. Are we willing to receive these words anew? Many things can block this deepening of our baptismal identity: failings, sins, disappointments, traumas, problems, and so on. Yet God's love is always greater. This week I challenge you to prayerfully repeat these words over yourself — or perhaps over someone you're struggling to love — until those words find a home in your heart.

— Father John Muir ©LPi

GOSPEL MEDITATION: LK 3:15-16, 21-22

In my second year of theology studies, I went to confession to a priest visiting the seminary for a three-day retreat. My heart wasn't in it. I was going through the motions. I confessed my sins and waited for his response. The priest said, "For your penance, I'd like you to go into the chapel and repeat the words 'You are my beloved Son, with you I am well pleased' (Luke 3:22) until they mean something to you." Easy penance, I thought.

But to my surprise, I struggled to say those words. I sensed a strong interior resistance blocking them. How could God be well-pleased with me? He couldn't be, I thought. A battle within me ensued. Two hours later,

EPIPHANY HOME DOOR BLESSING

Feast Of The Epiphany Home Blessing

Source: www.catholicculture.org

Traditionally, Catholics bless their home and those who live in their household on the Feast of the Epiphany each year. Although that feast was celebrated last week, it's not too late to bless your home. It's easy to do. Here's what you'll need.

1. Prayers – The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops version: <https://www.usccb.org/prayers/blessing-home-and-household-Epiphany>
2. Blessed chalk – You may use the chalk blessed at last weekend's Epiphany Mass or use chalk you have leftover from a previous year.
2. A doorway and a ladder or chair

For 2025 you will write above the door in chalk:
 $20 + C + M + B + 25$

The initials of the Magi—Caspar, Melchior and Balthasar—are inscribed upon the doors with the blessed chalk. The initials, C, M, and B can also be interpreted as the Latin phrase "Christus Mansionem Benedicat" which means "Christ bless this house."

PARISH BIBLE STUDY

James: Pearls for Wise Living

James is one of the most practical books of the Bible. Its teachings speak loudly to those who feel torn between the competing demands of this world and their faith. This study offers "pearls for wise living" by applying the wisdom of James to our current day. For anyone who has struggled to live a truly Christian life, James offers a wealth of practical solutions for handling and even sanctifying everyday circumstances.

We will begin an eleven-week Bible study, James: Pearls for Wise Living, on Jan. 26 at 6 PM via Zoom.

Purchase study materials--both the workbook and online access--at <https://ascensionpress.com/collections/james-pearls-for-wise-living>.

FAITH & PRAYER

PRAY FOR VOCATIONS!

Pray for an increase in vocations to religious life. This month we especially pray for these two local seminarians.

John Bonnin

Luis Martinez

Padre Nuestro, te damos gracias por llamar a hombres y mujeres a servir en el Reino de tu Hijo como sacerdotes, diáconos y personas consagradas. Manda tu Santo Espíritu para ayudar a que otros respondan con generosidad y valentía a tu llamado. Que nuestra comunidad de fe apoye las vocaciones de amor sacrificial en nuestros jóvenes y jóvenes adultos. Por nuestro Señor Jesucristo quien vive y reina contigo en la unidad del Espíritu Santo, un solo Dios, por los siglos de los siglos. Amen.

God our Father, we thank you for calling men and women to serve in your Son's Kingdom as priests, deacons, and consecrated persons. Send your Holy Spirit to help others to respond generously and courageously to your call. May our community of faith support vocations of sacrificial love in our youth and young adults. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

We also commend to your intercession this order committed to the consecrated life: Missionaries of the Holy Spirit.

In Sympathy...The parish community mourns the loss of parishioner, George Aldaya, who recently passed away. We offer our deepest condolences to his family and in particular to his wife, Michele and daughter, Nicole Glowe (also a parishioner).

Go forth, Christian soul, from this world in the name of God the almighty Father, who created you, in the name of Jesus Christ, Son of the living God, who suffered for you, in the name of the Holy Spirit, who was poured out upon you. Go forth, faithful Christian.

May you live in peace this day. May your home be with God in Zion, with Mary, the Virgin Mother of God, with Joseph, and all the angels and saints. Amen.
