Parish Mission Statement

We, the people of St. Anthony Mary Claret Parish, have as our mission to open our hearts and doors to those from all walks of life so that they too may share in the everlasting presence of God. Together we strive to grow closer to Jesus Christ through the Holy Eucharist. We work to foster the development of the parish, not only to strengthen our own spiritual awareness, but to impact the community as a whole.

GOSPEL MEDITATION: LK 6:27-38

One of my favorite new singers/songwriters is Noah Kahan. I'm a little biased because, like me, he is originally from Vermont. In a fine song entitled "Stick Season," he sings of his hope to "cancel out the darkness I inherited from Dad." This lyric articulates his painful recognition of a dark spiritual "inheritance" from his father, and his hope to be free of it. We all inherit some degree of evil from our earthly forebears. It's easy to feel doomed to repeat their darknesses.

But we're not so doomed, thank God. This week's Gospel proclaims this. Whatever good or bad we received from our parents, we have a more definitive and perfect inheritance in God. Jesus commands us, "Be merciful just as your Father is merciful" (Luke 6:36). We have a perfect Father in heaven and are destined to inherit and reflect that perfect and merciful love. We have an inheritance of light, not darkness, and thus a whole new possibility of magnanimous love. Like any inheritance, this is a free gift to us. What are we destined to repeat? Not the darkness of our earthly parents. We are destined to be a reflection of God's life. Jesus liberates us from the inevitability of repeating whatever evils and imperfections are in our familial or cultural upbringing. It's time to claim that perfect inheritance. — Father John Muir ©LPi

St. Anthony Mary Claret Stephen Ministry: A CALL FOR CAREGIVERS

"Encourage one another and build each other up."

- 1 Thes. 5:11

Is God calling you to share your gifts of compassion, patience, mercy, gentleness, humility, strength and understanding?

Stephen ministers exhibit a faith that is practiced by giving care to others. In providing that care in Jesus' name, they find they are blessed as well. There is joy in listening, providing hope, and offering friendship to support those in need.

Would you consider becoming a Stephen Minister? To learn more about training and serving in this beautiful ministry, contact Catherine Chavez at (361) 455-2753 or chavezcat10@gmail.com.

Healing Through Grief: A Talk by Dr. Joseph Grabau Sponsored by Stephen Ministry Thursday, Feb. 27, 7-8:30 PM Msgr. Hubertus Hall

Grief, a natural response to loss, can manifest during or after a traumatic event, whether it's the loss of a loved one or significant changes to daily routines and ways of life. If you or someone you know is struggling with a range of difficult and unexpected emotions such as shock, anger, disbelief, guilt, and sadness, it's crucial to understand that this is part of the grieving process. By gaining a deeper understanding of grief, you can empower yourself to navigate these emotions.

FAITH & PRAYER

PRAY FOR VOCATIONS!

Pray for an increase in vocations to religious life. This month we especially pray for these two local seminarians.

Samuel Gutierrez

Oscar Rodriguez

Lord, we thank you for giving us the gift of the priesthood, a "gift and mystery," a call to follow and imitate Christ, your Son. We pray, Lord, as you continue to place the call to serve our people as priests in the hearts of many, that they will hear your voice and respond with joy and generosity to your great grace of love. We pray that through the intercession of Mary, our Blessed Mother, you grant us many more vocations to the priesthood and that each family and parish be a place where we can all nurture and encourage the young men of today to hear and follow your call. Amen.

(by Archbishop José Gómez, Archbishop of Los Angeles)

We also commend to your intercession this order committed to the consecrated life:
Daughters of Mary Immaculate (Marianist Sisters).
